Feminist Periodicals

A Current Listing of Contents

Volume 28, Number 4 (Fall 2008)

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, followed by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. Subscription prices (print only; for online prices, consult publisher).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
10. Selected fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal in Feminist Periodicals is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on gender, women's studies, or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

University of Wisconsin System users: To locate these periodicals within the UW System, do a UW System/Universal Borrowing search from your campus catalog (labeled variously "Other Libraries," "More Libraries," "Other Catalogs," "Other UW Catalogs," etc.) If information on actual holdings (volumes and issues) is not in the records retrieved, contact the Reference Department at the library of interest.

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information.

Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents (ISSN 1941-725X) is published online, quarterly, by Phyllis Holman Weisbard, UW System Women's Studies Librarian, 430 Memorial Library, 728 State Street, Madison, WI 53706. Phone (608) 263-5754. Email: wiswsl@library.wisc.edu. Website: <http://womenst.library.wisc.edu>

Feminist Periodicals is available free of charge at <http://womenst.library.wisc.edu/publications/feminist-periodicals.html>. A subscription to the publications of the Office of the UW-System Women's Studies Librarian includes our print publications Feminist Collections: A Quarterly of Women's Studies Resources and New Books on Women, Gender, & Feminism along with email notification of each new issue of Feminist Periodicals. Subscription rates: Wisconsin subscriptions: $10.00 (individuals affiliated with the UW System), $20.00 (organizations affiliated with the UW System), $20.00 (individuals or non-profit women's programs), $30.00 (institutions). Out-of-state subscriptions: $35.00 (individuals & women's programs in the U.S.), $65.00 (institutions in the U.S.), $50.00 (individuals & women's programs in Canada/Mexico), $80.00 (institutions in Canada/Mexico), $55.00 (individuals & women's programs elsewhere outside the U.S.), $85.00 (institutions elsewhere outside the U.S.). Wisconsin subscriber amounts include state tax (except UW organizations amount). Feminist Periodicals was originally a print publication (ISSN 0742-7433) from v.1, n.1, 1981 through v.27, n.4, Fall 2007. Printed back issues of these issues are available for $10 each. All prices include postage. Publications of the Office of the UW-System Women's Studies Librarian are available free of charge to UW Women's Studies Offices, UW Campus Women's Centers, and UW Libraries.

Back issues of Feminist Periodicals are archived online at <http://digital.library.wisc.edu/1793/259>.

Front Cover

Leah Dorion, "Invocation Medicine" acrylic and beads on canvas, 24" x 30", 2005. These women are praying to the sacred grandmother spirit. They call to her to help all women on this earth. As they call to the grandmother, she arrives to bless themw ith loving kindness and healing energy.

Back Cover

Leah Dorion, "Lady in the Sky Medicine" acrylic and beads on canvas, 20" x 24", 2005. This female spirit on Grandmother moon blows medicine from the palm of her hand and it transforms into four warrior turtles who are going to help humans living on Mother Earth re-learn the sacred balance between all the colours of man, the white, the red, the yellow, and the black. It is said that our world has been out of balance and harmony because the four colours of humanity have not been able to share their own special gifts with the world family and we are suffering because of this unbalance. (Leah Dorion's artwork also appears on pgs. 5, 134, and 212.)

Leah Marie Dorion is a Métis artist raised in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. A teacher, painter, filmmaker, and published writer, Leah views her Métis heritage as providing her with a unique bridge for knowledge between all people. An instructor at the Gabriel Dumont Institute in Prince Albert, Leah has degrees in Native Studies and Education. She has numerous creative projects to her credit including academic papers for the Royal Commission of Aboriginal Peoples, a children's book, gallery showings of her art works, and numerous video documentaries that showcase Métis culture and history. Her paintings honour the spiritual strength of Aboriginal women and the sacred feminine. Leah believes that women play a key role in passing on vital knowledge for all of humanity. She believes women are the first teachers to the next generation. More information about her artwork can be obtained from <www.leahdorion.com>.

10 Best Jewish Feminist Ideas

Celebrating Lilith's 100th issue, readers helped us brainstorm some necessary and life-changing concepts. Here are more than 100 of our favorites.

12 Cancer Bitch

by S.L. Wisenberg

Wisenberg's known for her fiction. Here, reality, with frank journal entries on hair, her mother, her mastectomy camisole, and the secret behind nervous laughter.

20 An Unquiet Revolution at the Water Cooler

Eight women in their 20s and 30s dish about their jobs in the Jewish nonprofit world. Turns out they were totally primed to tell the truth about why they might not stay, and what they want in the rest of their lives. Plus seven steps to making things better, from Shifra Bronznick and Didi Goldenhar.

Switchbacks on the Road to Judaism

28 A Trek from Catholicism

by Marian Nash

When your mother's a devout Catholic and your father died a baptized Jew, crafting an identity that fits can be rough.

30 Lonely at the Table

by Darcy Fryer

Some converts come to Judaism missing one thing: a Jewish family.

31 A Mormon-Jewish Burial. Why Not?

by Amy Wall

When her father dies, Wall's surprised by what she's willing to do, both to honor him and her own conflicted feelings.

36 Lake Michigan Tashlikh

by Barbara Stock

Sometimes, you have to grapple with a "starting over" ritual until it does its job.

FEATURES

6 DANCE OF THE WIGHT GODDESS

Maria Ede-Weaving

I had worked hard on myself over the last few years, but recent events had left me exhausted. So I sought sanctuary.

12 CHARIOT OF THE SUN

Tess Dawson

As Lady Shapshu rolls beneath us and our day ends, another day begins in the House of Freedom.

15 VISIONS OF CRETE

Melodie Bolt

I knew that the Cretan Goddess wanted me arms upraised, snakes in hand, just like the gorgeous statue.

18 SEARCH FOR THE INNER DURGA

Jerda Schmetzler

Durga is both the gentle, nurturing mother and the ferocious warrior; her many arms are often shown cradling a young child or wielding a host of formidable weapons.

22 THE DESCENT

Gretchen Treadwell

Why am I still so tempted to go down, following downward circles that end up in the same place?

27 HEXAGRAM 58: THE JOYOUS Dina Peace

My boyfriend had just dumped me and I was driving from eastside to westside Detroit to see my good friend and mentor Salima. It was late January in Motown, snow on the ground and the wind icy. But inside, my growing rage was blazing like a furnace.

contents of our minds

special features

14 All About Manga

Teens all over the world have discovered manga, the popular Japanese comics. We've got the history of manga, manga heroines, and even teen girls who draw their own manga!

32 Fashion Extravaganza

Latest trends, ad campaigns, peer pressure, looking good: we explore the whole complicated business of fashion.

38 Clothing Fit for YOU!

Can you love fashion and still be true to yourself? Absolutely! Meet teens who make their own clothes—and fashion designers who grew up to make clothes for the rest of us.

46 Taking It to the Extreme

Teen girls on boards and bikes? Say hello to extreme sports. Meet female athletes who are testing the limits, challenging stereotypes, and busting into a traditionally male world.

regular features

6 Food Corner

Learn to turn your love of cooking into a career! Teen Voices visits The Cambridge School of Culinary Arts and meets founder Roberta Dowling.

22 Surviving Sexual Assault

Did you know you are most likely to be raped by someone you know? Find out what you can do about date rape—and what to do if it happens to you.

26 Media Watch

Tired of news about celebrities gone bad? So are we. It's time for the media to stop shooting down stars—especially young women—and acknowledge that they are people too.

departments

3 Dear TV

Our readers are questioning, suggesting, correcting—and we're loving it!

5 Girl Talk

Fashion isn't always pretty. We take a close look at what goes into creating your cosmetics and clothes.

10 Good Reading

When's the last time reading made you hungry? These poems about junk food will have you heading for the fridge.

20 Arts & Culture Reviews

Some books and CDs to grab—and a few to avoid.

44 Dear D

If a boy has sex, he gets a high five, while a girl gets called a slut. What's up with that? Dear D answers your questions about the sexual double standard.

52 Love Poems

When you find that special someone, your heart spills onto the page.

54 Say What

Men are pigs. At least according to Trojan's Evolve condom ads. We unwrap the commercial controversy.

Une géographie féminine dans l'Heptaméron de Marguerite de Navarre (1559)

Corinne Wilson.....11

François I^{er} favorise l'éveil à l'espace chez les Français. Par sa mobilité, il développe l'unité du royaume de France, unique en Europe. Son avènement marque aussi un tournant dans la vie de Marguerite de Navarre, surtout dans sa mouvance. Elle rejoint la cour et voyage aux côtés de son frère, en Provence, en Normandie et en Angoumois. L'Heptaméron présente la géographie de la France à travers les nombreuses références géographiques du texte qui en dessinent les contours. En premier lieu, on reconstituera le tracé de la carte de France. Puis, on analysera la redistribution de l'espace effectuée par Marguerite de Navarre selon une perspective féminine, enfin on définira le rôle de la femme dans l'espace.

Bonheur et intimité dans quatre romans d'Isabelle de Charrière

Isabelle Tremblay.....23

L'écriture romanesque de Belle de Zuylen, qui s'interroge sur les conditions de possibilité d'un bonheur féminin, débouche sur la mise en évidence des obstacles rencontrés par les personnages féminins dans leur quête du bonheur et sur les éventuelles solutions de rechange. Les tensions entre la sphère privée et l'identité individuelle féminine se concilient dans l'intimité. Celle-ci serait donc le lieu de la construction du bonheur à condition que les héroïnes respectent les convenances de l'ordre établi et demeurent cachées. Déchirés entre les exigences contradictoires de leur maintien forcé dans la sphère privée et de la reconnaissance sociale qui fonde l'identité, les personnages féminins, contraints à n'exister que pour eux-mêmes, mènent une marche difficile vers le bonheur.

Sexe, texte et contexte : « Jeu » de « je » dans La Nouvelle Pornographie de Marie Nimier

Jeanne-Sarah de Larquier.....38

La pornographie : un sujet qui interpelle. Passées les réponses sous forme de projections individuelles, au-delà de la prise de conscience de l'approche herméneutique qui, à la manière d'un publicitaire, fait la promotion de la pornographie élargissant sa signification au rang de symbole, de culte de notre société, si l'on s'interroge sur un tel choix, nous nous rendons rapidement compte qu'il n'y a pas un choix mais une dynamique de choix utilisée par Marie Nimier pour expliquer le métier d'écrivain, et plus précisément le sien en accord avec elle-même à ce moment-là de sa vie de romancière et s'inscrire pour la première fois dans « sa génération » (interview pour Gala par Claire Baldewyns). Avant de pouvoir adopter l'article défini « la » pour son intitulé « La Nouvelle Pornographie », elle aura détaillé et cherché à appréhender « une » pornographie particulière à chacun. Du « je » aux « autres », de l'écrivain isolé à dessein « au lecteur privilégié qui représente tous les autres », sans négliger les « inconnus » qu'il aurait peut-être été « plus facile d'interroger », se dégage une notion de pornographie nécessaire tant pour justifier le personnage de l'écrivain qui va l'écrire sous nos yeux avec la plume de Marie Nimier qui se dévoile à son tour, que pour élargir le sujet du roman lui-même de ce fait ouvert.

Et ce fut tout : Vendredi soir d'Emmanuèle Bernheim

Sonia Assa.....53

L'importance sémiologique du corps dans l'écriture romanesque des femmes constitue l'un des développements les plus frappants de l'histoire littéraire récente. Emmanuèle Bernheim, comme plusieurs autres romancières de sa génération, n'hésite pas à représenter le désir féminin comme le principe même de ses narrations. Inversant le modèle traditionnel, elle donne à ses protagonistes le rôle de sujet parlant et désirant tandis que l'objet masculin de leur désir reste fondamentalement opaque. Mon propos sera d'analyser Vendredi soir comme cas exemplaire de conjonction entre une écriture minimaliste qui pratique l'art du moindre et le genre de la « fiction du désir ». Son roman part et parle du corps. Procédant par la filature de séquences qui montrent de petits détails concrets significatifs, Bernheim nous donne une représentation très précise des désirs et pensées d'une femme au cours d'une nuit qui constitue une sorte de parenthèse magique, un temps d'arrêt, un en dehors-du-temps dans sa vie — le temps de L'Aventure.

« L'Autre » dans Champs de bataille et d'amour de Véronique Tadjo

Thérèse Migraine-George.....67

Combinant romans, nouvelles, poésie, livres pour enfants, récits légendaires et un texte-témoignage sur le génocide rwandais, l'œuvre de Véronique Tadjo brouille les frontières entre les genres littéraires, les lieux et les temps. Née à Paris, élevée à Abidjan, vivant actuellement en Afrique du Sud, Tadjo élabore au fil de ses écrits une conception de l'altérité tout à la fois lyrique et concrète, à contre-courant des idéologies rigides et déshumanisantes véhiculées par certaines théories raciales, ethniques ou culturelles. Son roman Champs de bataille et d'amour (1999), qui s'articule autour d'un couple mixte vivant dans une grande ville africaine contemporaine, illustre de manière particulièrement éloquente cette résistance à tout dogmatisme destructeur. Dans ce roman, Tadjo privilégie une conception de l'être humain ou du « prochain » comme « inenglobable » selon les termes du philosophe français Emmanuel Lévinas, nous obligeant constamment à douter de toute définition préconçue de « l'autre », qu'il soit étranger ou familier. En mettant en valeur les doutes et déchirements vécus par des personnages confrontés à la réalité, faite de violence et de beauté mêlées, d'une grande ville africaine, mon étude vise à montrer que Champs de bataille et d'amour illustre non seulement la nécessité de rejeter toute idéologie raciale en faveur d'une ouverture à l'humanité fondamentale, mystérieuse et « inenglobable », des « autres » mais aussi les ressources inépuisables, cycliques et régénératrices, des rapports humains et de la nature.

Enfant des vagues ou de la vase ? Symbolique marine dans La vie de Joséphin le fou d'Ananda Devi

Véronique Bragard.....84

La métamorphose ichtyomorphe de Joséphin au centre de l'ouvrage La vie de Joséphin le fou (2003) de l'écrivaine mauricienne Ananda Devi est lue dans cet article comme une quête maternelle et métaphysique d'un jeune enfant rejeté par sa mère, elle-même une « désemparée de la terre ». L'étude de l'ambivalence de l'espace marin et de la vase dans laquelle Joséphin se réfugie révèle le déchirement existentiel du protagoniste et suggère un passage par l'abject. Sa recherche d'intégration cosmique est également lue dans le contexte insulaire de l'île Maurice et fait écho à la poursuite d'harmonie culturelle et nationale de l'île mise en péril au vu des peurs croissantes vis-à-vis de l'hybridité qu'incarne Joséphin.

GRADUATE ESSAY

La femme selon l'Encyclopédie

Sophie Delahaye.....98

La femme selon L'Encyclopédie compare les tentatives de définir la femme, à travers deux outils d'un savoir objectif et scientifique : les dictionnaires du XVII^e au XX^e siècle ainsi que l'Encyclopédie de Diderot et d'Alembert. Cette comparaison permet d'une part, de replacer le discours masculin sur la femme au siècle des Lumières dans sa perspective historique, et d'autre part, de noter l'effort progressiste de ceux qui rédigèrent l'article « femme » de l'Encyclopédie ou dictionnaire raisonné des sciences, des arts et des métiers. Si les définitions des dictionnaires demeurent conservatrices voire archaïques, les encyclopédistes proposent en revanche une critique des idées reçues. Quatre contributeurs : Barthès, Jaucourt, Desmahis et d'Argis, confessent l'aporie du discours masculin concernant la femme. En faisant de l'Encyclopédie un lieu de dialogue, ils tentent de résorber les manques d'un discours déficient et prennent parti en faveur de l'égalité des sexes et pour la cause féminine.

ENTRETIEN

Entretien avec Ina Césaire (le 13 janvier 2006 en Martinique)

Stéphanie Bérard.....110

Ina Césaire, ethnologue et dramaturge martiniquaise, confère une place prépondérante à la femme dans son théâtre marqué par l'oralité et la tradition populaire. Ses pièces font entendre la voix de celles qui ont été maintenues dans l'ombre de l'Histoire officielle et sous la domination de l'homme. Ina Césaire dénonce avec force et conviction l'inégalité entre les sexes ainsi que la discrimination raciale et sociale qui règne aujourd'hui encore dans la société antillaise.

11. "Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice, a continuation of the Berkeley Women's Law Journal, is guided by an editorial policy which distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist journals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore discussions that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions of inequality are continually changing, our mandate is continually evolving."

Both national and international in focus, JGL is intended to serve as a forum for topics inadequately addressed in most law journals and reviews, including issues concerning women, children, family, sexuality, reproductive rights, and violence. The articles in JGL approach legal issues from a variety of disciplines. We aim to promote an expansive view of feminism embracing women and men of all colors, classes, sexual orientations, and cultures."

Each issue of this annual journal reflects the energies of this rapidly growing field by publishing essays, art exhibition and book reviews, bibliographies, and a forum on a current topic of interest to the study of early modern women. Essays may consider women and gender from any region of the globe and may develop a number of scholarly perspectives, including but not limited to art history, cultural studies, history, history of philosophy, history of science, literature, music, politics, religion, or theater. Approaches that challenge current assumptions and cross disciplinary boundaries are especially welcome."

11. "Femspec, a peer-reviewed journal, is interested in developing a community of like-minded people engaged in speculating, theorizing, creating and questioning gender across the boundaries, including issues of sexual orientation. We emphasize interdisciplinary approaches, and encourage work on teaching as well as literary and cultural criticism and creative material. We hope an approach to pedagogy will bring in work from a wider area of disciplines. We are interested in a variety of feminisms and aim to be inclusive of ethnic and cultural diversity in an internationalist perspective. We are also committed to publishing feminist experimental prose and poetic works, and to experimenting across media. Our impetus came from the collectively-perceived lack of attention to non-linear writing, sf, fantasy, magical realism and supernatural works in feminist journals and audiences; the lack of consistently evolving developed levels of feminism in sf criticism; and the inadequacy of magical realism publishing outlets in the U.S."

It is an international forum for research on and debates about feminist research on gender and language. Gender is defined broadly, as a key element of social relationships often loosely linked to perceived differences between the sexes as well as a primary arena for articulating power in complex interaction with other dimensions of power, like class, race, and sexuality. It welcomes research employing and investigating a range of different linguistic approaches (including, but not only including, conversation analysis, critical discourse analysis, ethnography of communication, interactional sociolinguistics, linguistic anthropology, variationist sociolinguistics, stylistics and pragmatics) which focus on a range of different linguistic phenomena."

These include Muslim and non-Muslim communities within the greater Middle East, and Muslim and Middle-Eastern communities elsewhere in the world. Articles dealing with men, masculinity, children and the family, or other issues of gender are also considered. The journal strives to include significant studies of theory and methodology as well as topical matter. Approximately one-third of the submissions focus on the pre-modern era, with the majority of articles focusing on the contemporary age. The journal features several full-length articles and current book reviews. The majority of Hawwa's articles are in English. However, articles submitted in French are also considered.

6. [email: editor@persimmontree.org].
11. "Persimmon Tree showcases an impressive variety of literature and art by women over 60, many still working well into their 80s and 90s. Many of the writers and artists are well-known: Marilyn French, Ruth Stone, Grace Paley, E. M. Broner, Paula Gunn Allen, Jane Lazarre, Faith Ringgold, and Nicole Hollander. Others are lesser known, while some are newly developing their craft in their later years. All of them are at the height of their creative powers, and all of them express the shared, though diverse experiences of aging women, from late middle age to late old age. Persimmon Tree is intended to fill a niche that has been neglected by contemporary publishing, whether in print or online. There is a growing body of work by male writers and artists who are entering or well into old age. But the comparable body of work by aging women in much smaller and mostly limited to a few already well-known writers and artists. Women are creating, but they are not getting the exposure they deserve."

11. The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is "to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children.... [its] women-centered perspective...allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit.... To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field – in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

11. "Studies in Gender and Sexuality is a response to the excitement attendant to recent research and writing by scholars and clinicians. It provides a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revised and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal also publishes related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate."

11. "The purpose of the journal is to encourage and promote an understanding of how visual culture constructs gender in context with representations of race, age, sexuality, social units, and social class. The significance of visual culture for art education rests not so much in the object or image, but in the learning and teaching processes or practices used to expose culturally learned meanings and power relations that surround the creation, consumption, valuing, and dissemination of images. Similarly, the significance of gender for art education involves issues of equity and social justice in the learning, teaching, and practicing of art."

11. "Women & Language is an interdisciplinary research periodical and newsletter, associated with the Organization for the Study of Communication Language and Gender, which seeks to provide a feminist forum for those interested in communication, language and gender. It raises questions on the construction of gender and the interconnections among sex, gender, race, class, and heterosexual hegemony with regard to symbolic communications and the impacts of masculinist communication paradigms. Women & Language welcomes completed research, essays, personal narratives, poetry, as well as work in progress and information sharing on conferences, publications, and so on. It includes contributions from all disciplines, and particularly looks for interdisciplinary work."

11. "Women's Writing is an international journal focusing on women's writing up to the end of the long Nineteenth Century. The Editors welcome theoretical and historical perspectives, and contributions that are concerned with gender, culture, race and class. The aim of the journal is to open up a forum for dialogue, discussion and debate about the work of women writers, and hopes to reflect the diversity of scholarship that can be brought to bear on this area of study."
