Feminist Periodicals

A current listing of contents

Volume 25, Number 4 & Volume 26, Number 1 (Winter & Spring 2006)

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. Subscription prices (print only; for online prices, consult publisher).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
10. Selected fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal in FP is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on women's studies or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media, published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky and compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

University of Wisconsin System users: To locate these periodicals within the UW System, do a UW System/Universal Borrowing search from your campus catalog (labeled variously "Other Libraries," "More Libraries," "Other Catalogs," "Other UW Catalogs," etc.) If information on actual holdings (volumes and issues) is not in the records retrieved, contact the Reference Department for each library of interest:

11. "The Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice, a continuation of the Berkeley Women's Law Journal, is guided by an editorial policy which distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist journals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore discussions that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions of inequality are continually changing, our mandate is continually evolving."

Both national and international in focus, JGL is intended to serve as a forum for topics inadequately addressed in most law journals and reviews, including issues concerning women, children, family, sexuality, reproductive rights, and violence. The articles in JGL approach legal issues from a variety of disciplines. We aim to promote an expansive view of feminism embracing women and men of all colors, classes, sexual orientations, and cultures."

The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

"Femspec, a peer-reviewed journal, is interested in developing a community of like-minded people engaged in speculating, theorizing, creating and questioning gender across the boundaries, including issues of sexual orientation. We emphasize interdisciplinary approaches, and encourage work on teaching as well as literary and cultural criticism and creative material. We hope an approach to pedagogy will bring in work from a wider area of disciplines. We are interested in a variety of feminisms and aim to be inclusive of ethnic and cultural diversity in an internationalist perspective. We are also committed to publishing feminist experimental prose and poetic works, and to experimenting across media. Our impetus came from the collectively-perceived lack of attention to non-linear writing, sf, fantasy, magical realism and supernatural works in feminist journals and audiences; the lack of consistently evolving developed levels of feminism in sf criticism; and the inadequacy of magical realism publishing outlets in the U.S."

The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is "to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children.... [its] women-centered perspective... allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit.... To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field -- in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

11. "Studies in Gender and Sexuality is a response to the excitement attendant to recent research and writing by scholars and clinicians. It will provide a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the Editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS will focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revised and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal will also publish related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate."

Lilith

independent, Jewish & frankly feminist

Volume 31, No. 1, Spring 2006

The Truth, in 3 New Memoirs:

10 Momifesto by Karen Prager
A stay-at-home mother reflects on her Harvard degree.

12 Sorrel Summer by Marlene B. Samuels
The daughter of Holocaust survivors passes through a narrow opening into her mother's own girlhood.

14 First Wednesday by Barbara Gingold
In cutthroat Washington, the writer's younger sister managed to create a new tradition, quintessentially Jewish and feminist. Why does it live on—in Jerusalem—after cancer claims her?

17 Female Merit Badges by Mary Yeager
Mascara, tampons, and black lace bras—collect the whole set!

18 Abba Kovner Listened a poem by Laurie Suzanne Lessen-Reiche, the winner of Lilith's Charlotte Newberger poetry competition.

20 Flight a short story by Phyllis Carol Agins

24 Jewish Moms, Chinese Daughters by Merri Rosenberg
Single Jewish women adopt the orphans of China's one-child-only policy. Now the first wave of these Chinese daughters prepares for bat mitzvah. Plus...how the offspring of Jewish-Chinese intermarriages celebrate.

28 Modern-Day Sex Slaves by Ilana Kramer
"Right around the corner from me!" The hidden trafficking of girls and women in the U.S. and Israel; who is try to free these captives?

48 What's in Your Wallet? That Ominous Organ Donation Card by Melanie Weiss

Brianna Skobnik was featured on the cover of the first issue of Midwifery Today magazine. She is shown there with her mother Barbara's hands reaching down to receive her. The many hands in that picture seemed an appropriate symbol of midwifery: mother, father and midwife blending as one to welcome the baby.

Minhoon Kim, MT's graphic designer, photographed her for the cover—along with Jan Tritten, mother and midwife of Midwifery Today—representing 20 years of her life and that of Midwifery Today.

Brianna is now a student at the University of Oregon in Eugene, Oregon.

FEATURES

6 SIMPLY SPECIAL Diana Partington

A temple in an Orange County industrial park? How could anyone expect to find the Goddess in such a place?

11 SIERRA ANCHA: THE HEALING MAGIC OF SOLITUDE

Cristina Eisenberg

Solitude is a journey into yourself. Every woman should have the chance to spend a week in solitude in a place of beauty.

16 SIMPLICITY AS AN ACT OF WORSHIP Lisa McSherry

The virtue of simplicity is that it brings about clarity.

20 THE LISTENING TREE Eevia Keys

Somewhere it is written that if one sits long enough in silence then everything becomes clear.

23 PACKING LIGHT Edie Dillon

The labrys is the double-headed axe which symbolized the Goddess in ancient Crete. With it, the crone can choose what to keep and what is no longer needed.

27 TEA: HAVE A CUP OF COMFORT Lori Brady

My family learned it long ago: someone's hurting, hand them a cup of tea, sit down, and wait for them to talk.

OnTheCover

Increasingly confronted with forces of neo-liberalisation and right-wing politics, feminists can no longer deny, ignore, or minimise the role of sexuality within the sex/gender system that they seek to break. While there have been a few brave pioneers, many more need to face the issue, to engage in queer theorising and activism, and to bring the sexuality discourse into the core of feminist thinking and activism.
