BIBLIOGRAPHY

Hamilton, E. 1852

The Flora Homeopathica, Vol. I & II.

Illustrations and descriptions of the medicinal plants used as homeopathic remedies. Includes many plants in use today.

(Editor) 1857

(Homeopathy in Hospitals.)

Am. Drugg. Circ., 1, p. 146.

A general attack on homeopathy brought on by the appointment of homeopaths to the staff of a New York and a Chicago hospital. A homeopathic ward was set up in each of these hospitals.

Dietary at a Homeopathic Hospital.

Drugg. Circ., 2, p. 68.

A poem making fun of the homeopaths.

(Editor) 1858

Homeopathy.

Drugg. Circ., 2, p. 71.

A joke about homeopathy.

(Editor) 1858

Professor Christian on Homeopathy.

Drugg. Circ., 2, p. 233.

Discusses an attack on Homoeopathy at a meeting of the British Medical society.

(Editor) 1859

(A Few Globules for Homoeopathy.)

Punch, --, p. -- (Drugg. Circ., 3, p. 281.)

(A humorous attack on Homoeopathy.)

(Editor) 1854

Dr. Leared on Homoeopathy.

Drugg. Circ., 3, p. 208.

Suggests that the dread of nasty doses has been a cause of great accessions to the ranks of Homoeopathy.

(Editor) 1859

(The Profession and Homeopathy.)

----, ---, p. ---, (Drugg. Circ., 3, p. 17.)

(Objects to consultations between allopaths and homeopaths.)

(Editor) 1859

Mr. Punch on Homoeopathy.

Drugg. Circ., 3, p. 1376.

Comments on an attack on homeopathy.

(Editor) 1859

Punch on Homoeopathy.

Am. Drugg. Circ., 3, p. 149.

Makes an attack on homoeopathy.

Correspondents

1860

Homeopathy in Europe.

St. Louis Med. & Surg. Journ., --, p. -- (Drugg. Circ., 4, p. 175)

A series of letters stating that homeopathy is not recognized in various European countries.

Fowler, E.P., Browne, W.F., McDonold, W.O.. 1861

Renunciation of Homeopathy.

Am. Med. Times, 3, p. 156.

The 3 Doctors renounce homeopathy.

(Contravils, C)

1861

Dr. Peter's Renunciation of Homeopathy.

Am. Med. Times, 3, p. 156.

Attacks Dr. Peters and Homeopathy.

(Editor)

1861

A Homeopathic Army Surgeon.

Am. Medical Times, 3, p. 86.

Reports that there were 2 homeopathic physicians in the army. Their qualifications were doubted.

(Editor)

1861

Right to Consult with Homeopaths.

Am. Med. Times, 3, p. 124.

A Dr. Fergusson denied that he consults with homeopaths.

Fowler, E.P. 1861

No Renunciation.

Am. Med. Times, 3, 158.

Denies that he renounced homeopathy, stating he was never a homeopath.

Peters, J.C. 1861

Dr. Peters' Vindication.

Am. Med. Times, 3, p. 188.

Gives his life history and how he happened to be considered a homeopath.

Peters, J.C. 1861

Renunciation of Homeopathy.

Am. Med. Times, 3, p. 108.

States that he does not believe or practise according to one medical dogma or exclusive system.

Timon, -- 1861

The Renunciation of the Homeopaths.

Am. Medical Times, 3, 170.

Defends homeopathy.

(Editor) 1862

Homeopathy In Military Hospitals.

Am. Med. Times 4, p. 42.

Attacks an attempt to introduce homeopathic physicians into the military hospitals.

(Editor)

1863

Homoeopathic and Isopathic Cures.

Drugg. Circ., 7, p. 27.

Gives a list of nauseous substances used in homoeopathy.

(Editor)

1866

(Practical Homoeopathy.)

Med. Times, --, p.---, (Drugg. Circ., 10, p. 165; Chem & Drugg, 7, p. 78;

A joke about homoeopathy.

Lillard, B.

1873

Homoeopathic Pharmacy.

Proc. A. Ph. A., 21, 609, (Pharm. & Chem., 7, 140.

A short history of homeopathy, the methods of preparation of homeopathic medicines and a discussion of homeopathy.

(Editor)

1873

- Scientific Homoeopathy.

Drugg. Circ., 17, p. 103.

An attack on homoeopathy based on the 3 basic rules of homoeopathy.

(Homeopathy-Dispensing Memoranda.)

-----, -----, ---, p,---. (Chem. & Drugg. 14, p. 2; Drugg. Circ., 18, p. 125.

Describes methods of dispensing homoeopathic preparations and gives an explanation of the prescriptions.

(Editor) 1874

Homeopathic Tincture of Phosphorus.

Drugg. Circ., 18, p. 195.

An answer to a letter inquiring about the tincture of phosphorus.

Duncan, T.C. 1875

Clinical Successes in and Peculiarities of Scarlet Fever.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, V.2, NO.5, p. 564.

States that belladonna will prevent and cure scarlet fever.

Dunham, C. 1875

Provings of Sepia.

Trans. Am. Instit. Homeopathy, V.2, No. 5, p. 157.

Reports the observations of healthy people who took Sepia. Lists reactions in 30 persons.

Holcombe, H. 1875

The Treatment of Bright's Disease.

Trans. Am. Instit. Homeopathy, v.2, No. 5, p. 530.

Suggests various remedies for Brights' disease.

Lillenthal, S.

1875

The Therapeutics of Diabetes.

Trans. Am. Instit. Homeopathy, v.2, No.5, p. 490.

Suggests diabetes cures which should work according to the homeopathic system. Suggests several remedies which cause symptoms similar to that of diabetes.

Lippe, A.

1875

Therapeutics of Cholera Infantum.

Trans. Am. Instit. Homeopathy, V.2, No.5, p. 572.

Suggests several remedies for the cure of Cholera infantum.

(Editor)

1876

(Homoeopathic Science.)

----, --, p.----, (Chem. & Drugg. 17, p. 340; Drugg. Circ., 20, p. 130.

An address given at the British Homoeopathic congress.

(Editor)

1876

Homoeopathy Vs Allopathy.

Drugg. Circ., 20, p. 146.

Rush College refused to accept further transfers of credit from the Medical department of the University of Michigan as long as the University retained the course in homoeopathy.

Farquharson, R. 1876

(Official Dosage, with Some Remarks on Homeopathic Tinctures.)

Practitioner, --, p.---. (Pharm. Journ., 35, p. 904;
New Remedies, 5, p. 196.

States that certain homeopathic mother tinctures are stronger than tinctures of the same drug in the British Pharmacopoeia.

(Editor), 1876

Official Doses, With Remarks on Homeopathic
Tinctures.

New Remedies, 5, p. 174.

Comments on Dr. Farquharson's paper.

Brown, T.L. 1877

The Distinctive Verified Symptoms indicating the choice of the Best Remedy in Acute Mania.

Trans. Am. Instit. Homeopathy, v.2, p. 6, p. 575.

Discusses remedies for acute mania which have the power of producing symptoms similar to those exhibited by the patient.

de Derky, F.F. 1877

Therapeutics of Spinal Diseases.

Trans. Am. Instit. Homeopathy, v.2, No.6, p. 358.

Suggests treatments for spinal diseases.

(Editor) 1877

Homeopathy.

New Remedies, 6, p. 191.

A very brief account of the number of homeopathic physicians and pharmacists in France.

(Editor)

1877

Homoeopathic Dilutions.

Drugg. Circ., 21, p. 73.

Describes the method of making dilution of homeopathic tinctures.

(Editor)

1877

Homeopathy in England.

New Remedies, 6, p. 223.

The vice-president of the British Homeopathic Society suggested that the homeopaths give up certain of their policies and join the regular physicians. The suggestion was not well accepted by the regular physicians.

(Editor)

1877

Homeopathic Schools.

New Remedies, 6, p. 194.

Certain British medical journals now publish advertisements of homeopathic schools.

Guernsey, H.N.

1877

The Principles Enunciated by Samuel Hahemann as Authority in Medicine.

Trans. Am. Instit. Homeopathy, v.2, p. 444, NO. 6.

States that only by following the "Organon of Healing" strictly can homeopathy be successful.

Wesselhoeft, C. 1877

A Repeating of Carbo Vegetabilis.

Trans. Am. Instit. Homeopathy, v.2, No.6, p. 184.

Records the reactions of a number of people taking carbo vegetabilis.

(Editor) 1878

A Homeopathic Declaration.

Drugg. Circ., 22, p. 52.

A declaration that the theory of dynamization of drugs is false in theory and should be discarded by the homeopathic profession, made by the homeopathic Medical Society of Albany, county, New York.

Gilchrist, J.G. 1878

Homeopathic Treatment of Tumor.

Trans. Am. Instit. Homeopathy, V.2, No.7, p. 346.

Makes several suggestions for the Medicinal treatment of Tumors.

Olcford, G.M. 1878

Diverse Drug. Action.

Trans. Am. Instit. Homeopathy, v.2, no.7, p. 175.

States that different doses of the same drug produce different physiological reactions. Therefore, the dose is as important as the cure.

Owens, W.

Nitrate of Sanguinaria.

Trans. Am. Instit. Homeopathy, v.2, no.7, p. 186.

Repeats the results of proving of Nitrate Sanguinaria by inducing symptoms in well persons and alleviation of conditions in ill persons.

Paine, H.M.

1878

An Examination of the Doctrine of the Minimum Dose and the Theory of Dynamization Promulgated by Dr. S. Hahnemann.

Trans. Am. Instit. Homeopathy, v.2, no.7, p. 373.

States that simple dilutions of low concentration are of little value, but dynamized solutions more highly diluted are very potent. Gives rules for dynamization.

Sherman, L.

1878

The relative Efficiency of the Dilutions and the Triturations.

Trans. Am. Instit. Homeopathy, v.2, no.7, p. 169.

A discussion of the merits of triturations and dilutions.

Breyfogle, W.L.

1879

History of Drug Attenuations.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, p. 177.

A history of drug Attenuations after the time of Hahnemann.

Crossman, G.H. 1879

Homeopathic Tincture of Aconite.

Drugg. Circ., 23, p. 202.

A short history of aconite and the homeopathic method of making the tinctures.

Dake, J.P. 1879

Drug. Attenuation in Homeopathic Therapeutics.

Am. Inst. Homeopathy, p. 175.

A history of drug attenuation in homeopathic practice up to the death of Hahnemann, with a statement of its object and methods.

(Editor) 1879

The U.S. Homeopathic Pharmacopœia.

New Remedies, 8, p.22.

An announcement of the publishing of the U.S. Homeopathic Pharmacopœia.

Gallupe, William 1879

The Curative Power of Potentized Medicine, with Cases.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, p. 267.

Lists a number of cases used by potentized medicines. Includes a short history of each case.

Jones, S.A. 1879

The Limits of Drug Attenuation.

Am. Instit. of Homeopathy, p. 192.

Offers proof the presence of drugs in attenuations above the third decimal, from the standpoint of the scientist.

Rhees, M.J.

1879

Means Employed in Drug Attenuations.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, p. 245.

Discusses methods employed in obtaining drug attenuation.

Sherman, L.

1879

Attenuating Medicines.

Am. Instit. of Homeopathy, p. 196.

Discusses the objects and methods of Hahnemann in attenuating medicines.

Sherman, L.

1879

The Means Employed in Drug. Attenuation.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, p. 185.

Discusses the means employed in drug attenuation; what they should be, and the dangers of impurities.

Sherman, L.

1879

Medicinal Power in Attenuation.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, p. 231.

Offers proof of the presence of medicinal power in attenuations above the sixth decimal, from the standpoint of the scientist.

Sherman, L.

1879

Medicinal Power in Attenuations.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, p. 235.

Offers proof of the presence of medicinal power in attenuations above the sixth decimal, from the standpoint of the therapist.

Wesselhoeft, C.

1879

The Dose and Degree of Attenuation.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, p. 204.

A discussion of the ultimate particles of matter, effects of attenuation or dilution, sufficiency of eleventh centesimal attenuation, influence of distances between molecules, limits the divisibility of matter, relative reliability of data of molecular science, extreme attenuation, and conclusions based on the presumptive correctness of molecular science.

Breyfogle, W.L.

The Proofs of Drug Presence and Power in Attenuations Above the Sixth Decimal, As Furnished by the Tests of Chemistry.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1880, p. 170.

Lists a number of tests tried on homeopathic preparations with his conclusions.

Cowperthwaite, A.C.

1880

Proofs of Medicinal Presence & Efficacy.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1880, p. 218.

Offers proofs of medicinal presence and efficacy in attenuations above the sixth decimal, as furnished by clinical experience in the use of attenuations from the 15th to the 30th decimal.

(Editor)

A Crucial Test of Homoeopathic Mediums.

Original Not available, (Drugg. Circ., 24, p. 172.)

A test carried on to determine whether the 30th dilution of tincture of aconete had any physiological action in the usual dose. The result was not favorable to homoeopathy.

(Editor)

Hardon Homeopaths.

---, ----, p.---. Drugg. Circ., 24, p. 38.

A report that German Homeopathic physicians could not be prevented from dispensing medicated sugar pellet as tests showed the pellets contained nothing of medicinal or poisonous nature.

D., H.M.

Homoeopathy in Brooklyn.

Drugg. Circ., 24, p. 137.

States that some boys had stolen and eaten several boxes of homeopathic pills and suffered no ill effects.

(Editors)

Queer Homeopathy.

----, ----, p.---. (Drugg. Circ., 24, p. 125.)

Reports that a homeopathic physician was removed from the charge of a hospital because of the large amount of drugs he purchased and consequent expense.

Lawton, Ch.

1880

Proofs of Medicinal Power in Attenuations Above the Sixth Decimal.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1880, p. 214.

Discusses the limits of drug attenuation.

Lawton, C.H.

1880

Proofs of Medicinal Presence and Efficacy.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1880, p. 227.

Furnishes proofs by clinical experience with attenuations above the 30th decimal, including case histories.

Sherman, L.

1880

Proofs of Medicinal Presence and Power in Attenuations above the Sixth Decimal, From the Standpoint of the Physiologist.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1880, p. 193.

Offers proofs of medicinal presence and power in attenuations from the standpoint of the physiologist.

Smith, J.E.

1880

Remarks and Suggestions Concerning Certain Homeopathic Triturations.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1880, p. 176.

Gives results of tests and observations made personally.

Wesselhoeft, C.

1880

Proofs of Drug Presence and Power in Attenuations above the Sixth Decimal, as Furnished by the Spectroscope.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1880, p. 187.

Gives results of spectrum analyses of various attenuations.

Allen, H.C.

Prejudice.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1881, p. 211.

Claims prejudice is the chief obstacle to the scientific investigation of posology in clinical homeopathic medicine.

Allen, H.C.

1881

Viburnum Opulus.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1881, p. 169.

Gives the results of provings of Viburnum Opulus.

Armstrong, W.P.

1881

Observations on Dose.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1881, p. 238.

Gives rules for selecting the medicine and dose in homeopathy.

Cornperthwaite, A.C.

1881

Fragmentary Observations on the Report of the Bureau of Materia Medica, Pharmacy and Provings.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1881, p. 184.

Gives his conclusions on the use and provings of certain drugs.

Cornperthwaite, A.C.

1881

Schema of the Provings of Papaya Vulgaris.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1881, p. 154.

Gives the results of provings of papaya vulgaris.

Cornperthwaite, A.C. 1881

Schema of the Provings of Caladium Seguinum.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1881, p. 178.

Gives the results of Provings of Caladium Seguinum.

Cruese, J.L.A. 1881

Homeopathic Pharmacy.

Drugg. Circ., 25, p. 52 and 93.

A discussion of homeopathic pharmacy covering vehicles; mother tinctures and solutions; attenuations or potencies; triturations; globules, pilules, tincture triturations; selection of drugs, collection of plants; utensils and their cleaning; the preservation of medicaments; dispensing, the dose; prescriptions and abbreviations; powders; Mixtures and materia medica.

(Editor) 1881

Dosimetry, An offspring of Homeopathy.

Pharm. and Chem., 14, p. 444.

A discussion of allopathic dosimetry and its descent from homeopathy. Also includes the differences from homeopathy.

(Editor) 1881

Geometrical Equivalents of Homeopathic Dilutions.

New Remedies, 10, p. 277.

A review of Jaeger's paper on the dilutions used in homeopathy.

(H.A.) 1881

About "Homeopathic" Pharmacy.

Drugg. Circ., 25, p. 107.

Discusses the practice of a homeopathic pharmacist in Germany.

Hawkes, W.J.

1881

Schema of the Provings of Vibrunum Opules.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1881, p. 173.

Reports the results of provings of Vibrunum Opules.

Lee, L.J.W.

Homeopathy Gaining Ground.

Drugg. Circ., 26, p. 42.

States that homeopathy was increasing because of the palatable medicines of the homeopathic physicians.

Owens, W.

1881

Clinical Experience with Vibrunum Opules.

Am. Instit. of Homeopathy, 1881, p. 176.

Reports 3 cases where vibrunum opules was used in treatment.

(Boericke and Tafel)

1882

The American Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia.

A compilation of drugs and remedies used by the homeopaths of the United States.

Kennedy, S.

1882

(The Mathematics of Homeopathy.)

---, ----, p.----. (Pharm. and Chem., 15, p. 311.)

The strength of homeopathic 6th and 30th dilutions are expressed in decimals. Also the quantity of menstrum necessary for complete dilution of 1 drop of mother tincture to the 6th dilutions.

Martin, H.N.

1882

Provings of Amorphous Phosphorus.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1882, p. 149.

Gives the results of provings of amorphous phosphorus.

Rushmore, E.

1882

A Plea for the Homeopathic Treatment of Intermittent Fever.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1882, p. 215.

Suggests that homeopathic methods and remedies are best able to cure intermittent fever.

Smith, J.E.

1882

Remarks and Suggestions Concerning Certain Homeopathic Preparations.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1882, p. 575.

Makes suggestions regarding tests of certain homeopathic preparations, many of which contained gold.

Theyer, D.

1882

Cases Treated with High Potencies.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1882, p. 221.

Gives a list of cases cured with high potencies.

- Wesselhoeft, C. 1882
 The Presence and Dimensions of Particles of Metals in Triturations.
 Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1882, p. 632.
 Gives the results of an attempt to identify the metals in a trituration and the degree of dilution.
- Bayard, E. 1883
 Homeopathy as a Science.
 Pop. Science, 23, p. 732.
 Defends homeopathy.
- Beard, R.O. 1883
 The Schools of Medicine.
 Pop. Science Mo., 22, 535.
 Hahnemann coined homeopathy and allopathy. Defends homeopathy as a school of medicine.
- Cornperthwaite, A.C. 1883
 "A Model of Materia Medica."
 Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1883, p. 228.
 Makes suggestions for a model homeopathic Materia Medica.
- (Editor) 1883
 Homeopathic Prescriptions.
 The Druggist, 5, p 172.

Specimens of the various forms of homeopathic prescribing, comprising all of the varieties of prescriptions likely to be met with from homeopathic practitioner. Also, gives directions for dispensing.

(Editor)

1883

Homeopathic Tinctures.

Drugg. Circ., 27, p. 184.

Describes the methods of making homeopathic tinctures of Arsenite and Tincture of sulfur.

Farrington, E.A.

1883

Suggestions for "A Model Materia Medica".

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1883, p. 186.

The outline which should be followed for each drug in the homeopathic Materia Medica is followed here with nux vomica.

Shepard, F.J.

1883

Medical Quacks and Quackeries.

Pop. Science No., 23, p. 156.

Attacks homeopathy as being quackery.

Sherman, L.

1883

Nux Vomica.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1883, p. 202.

Discusses nux vomica from the homeopathic standpoint.

Smith, J.E.

1883

Remarks and Suggestions Concerning Certain Homeopathic Preparations.

The Requisites for "A Model Materia Medica".
Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1883, p. 843.
Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1883, p. 214.

Reports the results of analyses of certain substances used in homeopathy, including sugar of milk, iron as well as other substances.

Stout, H.R. 1883

Homeopathy and Quackery. Beans.

Pop. Science Mo., 23, p. 847.

Attacks Shepard's article in a previous number of the magazine. "bean beans" a rare medicine after medicated sugar pellets had failed.

Taylor, H.W. 1883

Parrish, E. (revised by Wagoner, T.S.) 1884

The Pharmacology of Hahnemann.

A Treatise on Pharmacy, 5th ed., p. 43.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1883, p. 329.

A description of the "homeopathic" or tapering cork and Reviews the principles set forth by Hahnemann.

Wesselhaeft, C. 1883

Abbreviated Materia Medica. Concerning Certain Homeopathic Preparations.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1883, p. 240.

Am. Instit. of Homeopathy, 1884, p. 187.

Makes suggestions for an abbreviated homeopathic materia medica. results of analyses of several samples of sugars.

Wood, N.B. 1883

Allen, R.C. 1883

Chemistry and Homeopathy.

Becale Cornutum.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1883, p. 958.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1885, p. 117.

A report of an analysis of a sample of sugar.

Discusses the provings of Becale Cornutum (argot).

Woodward, A.W. ,1883

The Requisites for "A Model Materia Medica".
Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1883, p. 214.

Makes several suggestions for a model homeopathic materia medica.

(Medicus) 1884

The Homeopaths "Southern Beans."

Drugg. Circ., 28, p. 50.

Attacks a homeopathic physician for giving quinine pills as "southern beans" a rare medicine after medicated sugar pellets had failed.

Parrish, E. (revised by Wegand, T.S.) 1884

A Treatise on Pharmacy, 5th ed., p. 49.

A description of the "homeopathic" or tapering cork and a picture of one.

Smith, J.E. 1884

Remarks and Suggestions concerning Certain Homeopathic Preparations.

Am. Instit. of Homeopathy, 1884, p. 127.

Reports the results of analyses of several samples of sugars.

Allen, H.C. 1885

Secale Cornutum.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1885, p. 117.

Discusses the provings of secale Cornutum (Ergot).

Beebe, E.W.

1885

Proving of Aronitum Napellus.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1885, p. 155.

Reports the results of provings of aronite.

Cowperthwaite, A.C.

1885

Lycopus Virginicus.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1885, p. 133.

A report on the homeopathic use of Lycopus.

Gainett, A.Y.

1885

Consultation with Homeopaths.

Journ. Am. M.A., 5, p. 194.

Letter denying that he had consulted a homeopathic physician.

Lilienthal, S.

1885

Alcohol and Glonoine.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1885, p. 136.

Compares the effect alcohol and nitro-glycerin as used in homeopathy. States that Hering introduced nitro-glycerin as a medicine.

De Normandie, --

1885

Proving of Aletris Farinosa.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1885, p. 157.

Reports the results of provings of Aletris Farinosa.

Sauvage, L.

1885

Proving of Convallaria.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1885, p. 160.

Discusses the results of Provings of Convallaria.

Sherman, L.

1885

Proving of Aconitum Napellus.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1888, p. 156.

Reports the results of provings of aconite.

Stone, H.W.

1885

Proving of Stannum Met.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1885, p. 161.

Gives the results of provings of metallic tin.

(Editor)

1886

Homeopathy.

---, ---, p. ---,. (Pharm. Rec., 6, p. 222)

Ridicules Homeopathy.

Hobart, H.M.

1886

The Additions to Hahnemann's works, on Materia Medica by this Disciple.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1886, p. 215.

Gives a list of books on homeopathic Materia Medica.

Hobart, H.M.

1886

The Additions to Hahnemann's Works on Materia Medica by this Disciple.

Am. Instit. Homeopathy, 1886, p. 215.

Gives a list of books on homeopathic Materia Medica.
