

LAW SCHOOL NOTES

A two volume Encyclopedia of Soviet Law, which will be co-published by Oceana Press and Martinus Nishoff in January, 1974, will contain 16 articles of which Professor Zigurds Zile is the author.

Prof. Zile

Professor Neil Komesar, who has been a member of the Law Faculty since 1971, has recently been awarded a PhD degree in Economics from the University of Chicago. Professor Komesar serves part-time on the staff of the Institute for Research on Poverty. His dissertation is an Economic Analysis of Criminal Victimization.

* * *

Recent graduates will be glad to know that the Student Lounge is at long last getting the addition which was scheduled several years ago. The outside wall is being moved outward to the courtyard, so that the covered pass-through will become part of the Lounge, increasing its size by about 2/5.

Prof. Skilton

* * *

Professor Richard Bilder presented a paper at the annual meeting of the Canadian Council of International Law in Ottawa in mid-October. His paper was entitled "Options Ahead for Promoting International Human Rights." The Council is the Canadian professional society in the field of International Law.

Prof. Bilder

"Legal Functionalism in American Jurisprudence" was the subject of the paper which Professor Samuel Mermin presented to the World Congress of Legal and Social Philosophy in Madrid early in September, 1973. Theme of the Congress was the "Functions of Law."

* * *

Several hundred women law students from many mid-west law schools attended a Midwest Conference on Women and the Law at the Wisconsin Law School, November 2-4. Host for the Conference was the Women Law Student Association of the Wisconsin Law School. Renie Hanover, Florynce Kennedy, prominent women practitioners and feminist leaders, were high-lighted speakers. A series of workshops on Women in Practice, Women in Law School, and the Law Concerning Women were held on Saturday and Sunday.

* * *