EDITORIAL POLICY

The Midwestern Archivist, a semi-annual journal published by the Midwest Archives Conference, is concerned with the issues and problems confronting the contemporary archivist. Articles relating to archival theory and current practice are solicited. Diversity among topics and points of view is encouraged, and material in a wide range of formats--including articles and essays, proceedings of seminars and workshops, review essays, and progress reports on special archival projects--will be considered for publication. News items, accession lists, descriptions of repository holdings, and similar material are published in the MAC Newsletter, which meets more immediate information needs than the journal. Ideas and opinions expressed by contributors are not necessarily those of the Editorial Board of the Midwest Archives Conference. Manuscripts should be sent to Mary Lynn Ritzenthaler, University of Illinois at Chicago Circle, Box 8198, Chicago, IL 60680. Offers to review books or suggested books to review should be sent to Nicholas C. Burckel, Book Review Editor, University Archives, University of Wisconsin-Parkside, Kenosha, WI 53140. The journal is free to MAC members and single copies are available at $2.50. Send inquiries regarding membership or purchases to Joanne Hohler, Secretary-Treasurer, 5742 Elder Pl., Madison, WI 53705.
