FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 11, Number 1

Spring 1991

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

ii.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in The Index/Directory of Women's Media published annually by the Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press (3306 Ross Place, NW, Washington, DC 20008); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

8. LC sn90-4343.
9. OCLC 20851526.
11. Snake Power refers to a power and autonomy that belonged to women before the development of patriarchal culture and the dominator model of society. This power-from-within a woman was the primary expression of religion and spirituality, and it was the basis of self-government among all early peoples....Snake Power is a movement toward global female leadership through embodiment of the sacred Feminine in each individual shaman-woman and the problem-solving she does in the normal activities of her daily life. Snake Power is a reclaiming of the ancient universal sacred holidays and the power of ritual magic, especially the unified force we channel when we come together as a group for healing and the manifestation of peace on the planet.

Connections

No. 34, 1990

An International Women's Quarterly

0 Introduction

2 Letters

A French women's group issues a plea for peace in the Persian Gulf. A Czechoslovakian lesbian group explains the high incidence of female-to-male sex change operations.

4 Mexico: Women Force a Government Response

Mexican women are creating a legal support network within newly revised rape laws.

6 Yugoslavia: Where Wives are Never Battered . . .

. . . and men and women are equal?

7 Iran: Enforcing the Veil

A personal account of encountering the revolutionary "morality" police.

8 Canada: Insignificant Violence?

Mass killing is not a gesture of hatred, but an example of an act of repression against women.

10 Sweden: Fighting for Feminist Interpretations of the Law

Defending women who take action against male violence.

12 Britain: A Hidden Struggle: Black Women and Violence

Black women in Britain are confronted with an indifferent bureaucracy when they try to escape violence in the home.

15 Ecuador: Campaign to Confront Violence

Desperation leads to the beginnings of a response in the No Violence Against Women Day.

16 South Africa: No to Rape! Yes to Action!

Two different women-led responses to rape in South African townships.

18 France: A Testimony Unbinds Many Tongues

What happens when a woman discusses incest on prime time television.

20 Puerto Rico: When Does a Law Work Too Well?

After years of political maneuvering, Puerto Rican feminists get legislation on domestic violence passed, only to be confronted with demands for its repeal.

21 Philippines: Manobo Women Speak

Testimony from Tribal Filipino women.

22 Living in Different Worlds

Excerpts from a recent book on the experiences of women living in Muslim society.

24 Austria: Little Red Riding Hood

How are women socialized into accepting the role of passive victim?

26 Dominican Republic: Everyday Violence

A look at the daily, arbitrary violence that women experience in their neighborhoods.

27 Zimbabwe: Appreciation or Oppression?

Custom, tradition and feminism in conflict.

28 Britain: Women Abusing Women

Facing the difficult issue of violence against women by women.

31 Norway: We Exist

Incest survivors find a group dedicated to their needs.

- 11 BRIDGING A GULF OF MISUNDERSTANDING
 Media coverage of the Gulf crisis has misrepresented the responses of the Asian community, and risks creating increased hostility when what is needed is understanding. Zerbanoo Gifford, who has interviewed hundreds of Asian women, talks about the issues.
- 12 THE NEW PARTY POLITICS: IS THERE ROOM FOR US?
 The party conference season is upon us. "As in a game-show, the members are there as audience to confirm the special quality of the conference and, by roars and applause, the potent quality of the leaders." Sarah Benton looks at what is happening to the political parties and what makes them behave as they do.
- 14 THE ARTS
 ● 8,000 nice girls flock to a huge music event
 ● Colourful women: an interview with painter Lucinda Denning

NEW MEXICO'S SECRETS JEWS: IS IT SAFE TO TELL? by Maria Siteglitz

After nearly 500 years of whispered instructions passed down from mothers to daughters, some of the secret Jews who practiced Catholicism after the Spanish Inquisition are coming out of the closet to light their Shabbat candles in full view of their "Indian Catholic Jewish" families 8

ROMANCE AND INTRIGUE IN SHAKESPEARE'S ENGLAND by Faye Kellerman

An excerpt from an enthralling historical novel, The Quality of Mercy, about a converso woman whose love affair with William Shakespeare threatens her family's double life at the court of Elizabeth I . . . 11

FROM OUR HEADS AND OUR HEARTS: CONNECTING WITH BLACK WOMEN by Letty Cottin Pogrebin

Can we be friends? Why do Jews need dialogue? Pogrebin tells about the years-long intimacy shared by a group of three Black and three Jewish women. She reveals how they agreed — and agreed to disagree — about politics, Israel, affirmative action and more 13
