PF FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 10, Number 1

Spring 1990

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

ii.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in The Index/Directory of Women's Media published annually by the Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press (3306 Ross Place, NW, Washington, DC 20008); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

Reproductive Rights: The Global Fight

13.

0 Introduction

2 Italy: The High Cost of Compromise

Doctors who perform abortions face career limitations; abortion rights activists gauge the battle with the religious Right.

5 India/England: Banned in the West/Silenced, Sterilized

Contraceptives considered unsafe for Western women are used on Third World women; a mentally disabled woman is sterilized without her consent and barred from testifying on her own behalf.

6 Rumania: Pregnancy Police

Women are subjected to extreme surveillance to keep them from having abortions.

8 Pakistan/Iran: Hadood: Catch 22

A woman's word is worth little in the courts.

10 West Germany: Who Determines What Life Is?

Conventional wisdom about the permissibility of abortion has been known to change.

11 Bolivia: Personal story

After a clandestine abortion, a woman faces social censure and physical pain.

12 Ireland: Blackout: Networking Against the Odds

Church and state conspire to keep women in the dark about their reproductive rights; one woman tells of her battle to control her fertility.

14 Bangladesh: Abortion By Any Other Name . . .

"Menstrual regulation," ostensibly done for a woman's health, is a legal form of abortion.

15 West Germany: RU 486: A Revolutionary Discovery?

The availability, pros, and cons of this drug are discussed.

16 England: A Legacy of Courage

Shocked by the price women pay in deaths and injuries for clandestine abortions, activists and Parliamentarians have fought for the right to choose.

18 Canada: Mobilizing for Action

Pro-choice groups demonstrate in support of women whose right to abortion has been challenged.

19 Soviet Union: Personal story

Greater availability of contraceptives is needed to reduce the numbers of repeat abortions.

20 India/South Africa: Lured Into Sterilization

Illiterate women are unknowingly sterilized to fill a government quota; population control programs target black women for sterilization.

22 Latin America/Nicaragua: Update on Latin America/A Different Kind of Revolution

The news from many Latin American countries is grim, but in Nicaragua, AMNLAE and other groups may change the abortion law this year.

24 In Brief: Updates from Israel, Spain, China, Europe, and Poland

26 Philippines: Like It Or Not

Many Filipinas prefer traditional methods of birth control; one woman tells of her difficulties in avoiding pregnancy.

27 Paraguay: Women's Bodies: A Taboo Subject

Refusal to discuss sexuality and reproduction has resulted in teen pregnancies.

28 Australia: A Question of Health

Reproductive rights activists are determined to uphold Australia's pragmatic abortion law.

30 Norway: Unseemly Knitting Needles

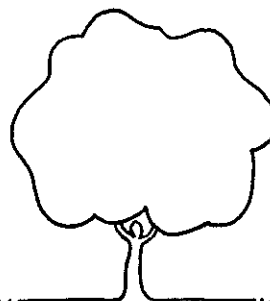

Anti-choice activists parade in traditional costume to spread their message.

32 Resources: An international list of reproductive rights groups.

THREE ADULT DAUGHTERS TALK:

■ MY MOTHER THE FEMINIST

■ WILL AND TESTAMENT

By Mary Cahn Schwartz
