EDITORIAL POLICY

The Midwestern Archivist, a semi-annual journal published by the Midwest Archives Conference, is concerned with the issues and problems confronting the contemporary archivist. Articles relating to archival theory and current practice are solicited. Diversity among topics and points of view is encouraged, and material in a wide range of formats — including articles and essays, proceedings of seminars and workshops, review essays, and progress reports on special archival projects — will be considered for publication. Ideas and opinions expressed by contributors are not necessarily those of the Midwest Archives Conference or its Editorial Board.

Manuscripts should be sent to Lydia Lucas, Minnesota Historical Society, 1500 Mississippi Street, St. Paul, MN 55101. Decisions on manuscripts will be rendered within eight weeks of submission. Offers to review books or suggested books to review should be sent to Warner Pflug, Book Review Editor, Walter Reuther Library, Wayne State University, Detroit, MI 48202.

MAC members receive The Midwestern Archivist and the MAC Newsletter upon payment of annual dues of $7.50; single copies of the journal are available at $3.50 plus fifty cents for postage and handling. Inquiries regarding membership or purchase of the journal should be directed to James E. Fogerty, MAC Secretary-Treasurer, Minnesota Historical Society, 1500 Mississippi Street, St. Paul MN 55101.

Articles appearing in this journal are abstracted and indexed in Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life.

Beginning with the current issue, the pages of the Midwestern Archivist will be numbered consecutively within each volume (Numbers 1 and 2 of each year), rather than beginning a new numbering sequence with each new issue. Continuous pagination, the norm for scholarly journals, will simplify bibliographic citations to articles and book reviews.
