EDITORIAL POLICY

The Midwestern Archivist, a semi-annual journal published by the Midwest Archives Conference, is concerned with the issues and problems confronting the contemporary archivist. Articles relating to archival theory and current practice are solicited. Diversity among topics and points of view is encouraged, and material in a wide range of formats—including articles and essays, proceedings of seminars and workshops, review essays, and progress reports on special archival projects—will be considered for publication. Ideas and opinions expressed by contributors are not necessarily those of the Midwest Archives Conference or its Editorial Board.

Manuscripts should be sent to David J. Klaassen, Social Welfare History Archives, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN 55455. Decisions on manuscripts will be rendered within ten weeks of submission. Offers to review books or suggested books to review should be sent to Warner Pflug, Book Review Editor, Walter Reuther Library, Wayne State University, Detroit, MI 48202.

MAC members receive The Midwestern Archivist and the MAC Newsletter upon payment of annual dues of $7.50; institutional memberships are $15.00. Single copies of the journal are available at $3.50 ($4.75 for Vol. VI, No. 2) plus fifty cents for postage and handling. Inquiries regarding membership or purchase of the journal should be directed to William J. Maher, MAC Secretary-Treasurer, University of Illinois Library—Room 19, 1408 W. Gregory, Urbana, IL 61801. The Midwestern Archivist is also available in microform from University Microfilms International.

Articles appearing in this journal are abstracted and indexed in Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life.
