Feminist Periodicals

A current listing of contents

Volume 22, Number 3 Fall 2002

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
10. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
11. Fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications that, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore, discussions of women's issues that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions in inequality are continually changing, our mandate is also continually changing."

The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

It will provide a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the Editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS will focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revised and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal will also publish related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate."

FEATURES

18 MUSLIM WORDS: TASLIMA NASRIN

Living in exile since 1994, Taslima Nasrin is one of the Muslim world's most vociferous dissidents. She invented the word 'meyebela'—girlhood—because while Bengali language assigns a word for boys' lives, it ignores girls'. Meyebela is the title of her latest book.

by Irshad Manji

22 PINK AND THE CULTURE OF FEMININITY

How exactly does one become an expert on such things as 1950s douching practices? Lynn Peril, founder of the zine, Mystery Date and the author of a new book called Pink Think, comes clean on femininity.

by Jennifer O'Connor

25 FUNNY GIRL

After 15 years on the road, Canadian comedian Elvira Kurt has moved from L.A. and is now based in Toronto. "I'm taking on themes much deeper than typical stand-up comedy," she confides. Does this mean she isn't funny any more? Stay tuned. Karen X. Tulchinsky has the answer.

29 HORMONE THERAPY NEEDS REPLACEMENT

HRT does not prevent heart disease. In fact, long term use of the drug is associated with an increased risk of heart disease. Hot flash doesn't begin to describe the reaction of feminist health advocates.

2 From the Editor

- 4 Kol Ishah NEWS BY AND ABOUT JEWISH WOMEN AROUND THE WORLD
 Jewish Sex Ed • Lilith flexes its artistic muscle • Celebration of a female God
 • Women: the new face of Orthodox Judaism • and more...

FEATURES

10 A Jewish Activist Works to Displease in Switzerland

BRIGITTE SION on facing down anti-Semitism and misogyny in this "neutral" country.

11 Praying for Protection

Spurred by Catholic boys' charges, SUE WILLIAM SILVERMAN remembers sexual abuse by her powerful politician father and what it meant to her identity as Jew.

12 Jewish Girls and African-American Nannies

LILITH asked readers to dig deep, for the first time, into these experiences. The results are stories of love and complexity. In these pages grown-up Jewish daughters begin to think through the lessons, the gratitude and the guilt of these intensely intimate dyads. We also listen to three nannies on the other side of these relationships.

23 The Matronymic Metamorphosis

Hyphenated surnames are yesterday's news. EDGAR BRONFMAN on why Jews should carry their mother's Hebrew names in synagogue. RABBI ADIN STEINSALTZ decodes the female derivations of Jewish surnames—e.g., Rifkin is really "the child of Rivkah." TAMAR NEWBERGER fights to give her baby daughter her last name, not her husband's. DEBRA RUBIN on being a female kohen. Plus a special adaptation by MARCIA FALK of the Hebrew poem "Each of Us Has a Name."

WINTER FICTION

28 Malka in the Promised Land

A short story by DANYA RUTTENBERG, in which a yeshiva girl breaks loose.

31 Polar Region

A short story by ERIKA DREIFUS: What could stop them from letting a smart, savvy single Jewish woman adopt the baby she craves?

Cover: "Annie and Jan," by Jan Norman. The artist says that her nanny, Annie Nolan, "was essentially my mother. My own mother, an artist, was never there." (Jan.noho@yahoo.com, photos.yahoo.com/jan_noho)

- 35 NOGA TRANSLATED BY NAOMI DANIS
 What Israel's feminist journal thinks about "Sex and the City."

36 Reviews

Does writing by young feminists ignore Jews? • Three takes on West Bank women • Holocaust historians with new evidence.

44 Readers Respond

Letters about mean girls, God-language, gifts for grownups.

45 Creative Edge

Ritual objects and art to own.

46 Tsena Rena

LILITH's indispensable resource pages: where to go for what if you're Jewish and female.

48 The Outsider

BY TERESA A. McMAHON
 Being a Catholic in temple.

Why is this magazine called Lilith?
In the Garden of Eden, long before the eating of the apple, the Holy One created the first human beings—a man, Adam, and a woman, Lilith. Lilith said "We are equal because we are created from the same earth."

Corrections: The article from last issue entitled "Disability and Nudity" was written by both Patricia Murphy and Pat Groves. We apologize for not including Patricia Murphy as co-author of the article. Also, in the article, it was stated that Boo Price was among the founders of the Michigan Womyn's Music Festival in 1976. Ms. Price was not one of the founders, but was co-producer of the MWMF from 1985 through 1994.

Progressive civil society in Zimbabwe is not defeated. Everjoice Win (above) gives an in-depth analysis of the political situation there and how the women's movement is strategising to overcome the difficulties. See pages 10, 11 and 19.

The new Maintenance Act, once implemented, will bring a big sigh of relief to many mothers who are struggling to obtain financial support from the fathers of their children. The Act is fair, just and comprehensive. It promises to cover the many loopholes of the current legislation. Read about the details on pages 6 and 7.

Die artikel is ook in Afrikaans vertaal vir ons lesers en verskyn op bladsye 16 en 17. 'n Groot pluspunt van die nuwe wet is dat dit die belange van kinders eerste stel, ongeag wie van wie onderhoudsgeld eis.

Embarking on a process of healing from sexual abuse is a journey that requires support and takes courage. Read the advice given by Dr. Hetty Rose Junius on page 7.

Baie mense sterf sonder 'n testament. Dit lei gewoonlik tot swaarkry vir die familie wat agtergelaat word. Die Regshulpsentrum (LAC) het onlangs 'n boekie vrygestel wat alles omtrent die opstel van 'n testament verduidelik. Dit is eintlik maklik as mens alles in ag neem wat in die boekie uiteengesit is. Lees op bladsye 16 en 17 meer daaroor.

The death of Aids activist Maureen Katjatako, who succumbed to the disease in July this year, is examined on pages 6 and 7. The author challenges and criticises the lack of real help from Aids organisations in the country.

A traditional basket or clay pot, a piece of jewellery or a product from a contemporary craft worker who combines traditional skills with new ideas - if it's Namibian it is likely to find a marketing avenue through Mud Hut Trading. Read more about Namibia's own fair trade organisation on pages 12 and 13.

Namibian middle distance runner Agnes Samaria is doing herself and her country proud this year. Read more about her victories on page 21.

'Treat people Now' is the slogan for a new campaign by Aids activists and people living with Aids to gain access to affordable treatment for HIV and Aids patients. Tenu Avafia of the Legal Assistance Centre's Aids Law Unit (above) highlights the possibilities of providing medication locally - given that there is the political will to do so. See pages 8 and 9 for more information.

"I do not have respect for these men because if they had respect for women they would not have spoken like this. They are married and I do not know how their wives feel about this. If it was my husband I would expect him to go back to parliament and apologise to the women of this nation," says Gisella Haoses of Women's Solidarity in reaction to the recent parliamentary debates on the Combating of Domestic Violence Bill. On pages 10 - 12 some civil society leaders analyse the underlying messages presented by these recent parliamentary debates.

Why do we need the Combating of Domestic Violence Bill NOW? After reading this article on pages 7 - 9 readers will have a good understanding of the content of this Bill and how its implementation will help Namibians to live life freer from violence.

Parenting Programs in Women's Prisons Joycelyn M. Pollock	131

This paper presents the results of a national survey of parenting programs in women's prisons. Parenting programs may be defined as those programs that specifically address the woman's role as mother and attempt to facilitate her performance of that role, and/or aid in the development of parental skills. These programs range from parenting classes of a few hours to nurseries where imprisoned women and their infants can live together during the term of imprisonment. The need for such programs is also discussed.
