PF FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 17, Number 1

Spring 1997

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

ii.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

12. The Berkeley Women's Law Journal is guided by an editorial policy that distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist periodicals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore, discussions of women's issues that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions in inequality are continually changing, our mandate is also continually changing.

12. Feminist Studies was founded to encourage analytic responses to feminist issues and to open new areas of research, criticism and speculation. The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

Key concerns in this area include the following: geographical variations in gender divisions and structures of patriarchy; the cultural construction and the cultural politics of gender; the intersections between gender, 'race', ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, class, age and other social divisions. The journal will provide a forum for debate in human geography and related disciplines on these themes. By drawing together these contributions, the journal will highlight the relevance of geographical research to feminism and women's studies.'

12. The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is "to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children. . . . [its] women-centered perspective. . . allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit. . . . To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field -- in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

12. "Women and Therapy is the only professional journal that focuses entirely on the complex interrelationship between women and the therapeutic experience. The journal is devoted to descriptive, theoretical, clinical, empirical, and multicultural perspectives on the topic of women and therapy. Women comprise the overwhelming majority of clients in therapy. Yet there has been little emphasis on this area in the training of therapists or in the professional literature. Women & Therapy is designed to fill this void of information."

10 SINGLE-SEX SCHOOLS—HOW WELL DO THEY SERVE GIRLS?

by Sarah Blustein

Paradoxically, just as the most progressive Jewish schools are more committed than ever to coeducation, there's a push (based on the work of Carol Gilligan and others) to create all-girls public schools. What's the risk?

14 MAGGID: THE TELLING

by Bonnie Theiner

"Ich Bin a Yid" What Grandpa told Pharaoh in 1945, and how a tape recorder transformed his story into sacred text last Passover. You can do it too.

16 SEPARATED AT BIRTH

A poem by Andrea Adam Brott

Subtle questions of race disrupt a lifetime of friendship.

Lilith is named for the legendary predecessor of Eve who insisted on equality with Adam. After the Holy One created the first human being, Adam, the Holy One created a woman, also from the earth, and called her Lilith. Lilith said: "We are equal because we both come from the earth..." (From The Alphabet of Ben Sira, 23a-b)

18 IN PRAISE OF FAMOUS WOMEN: A WALKING (OR ARMCHAIR) TOUR OF JERUSALEM

by Dorothy Gitter Harman and Nitzo Brown Rosovsky

Here we beat a path to the doors of 16 important Jewish women. There are plenty of pilgrimages to the Holy Land, but none that focus on females—until now! And, in celebration, Rabbi Susan Schnur sacralizes our tour with an update of "Woman of Valor."

25 THE WOMAN WITH ISRAEL IN HER HEAD

by Netta Blatt

"She is in bed/with the juice from a cyprus tree/... She is in bed with a country," writes Blatt in her love poem to Israel.

26 MY MUSLIM ANCESTOR HAGAR

by Azizah Y. al-Hibri

Jewish women aren't the only ones writing feminist midrash. Here, a Muslim woman beautifully reimagines Hagar's life (and Sarah's). Plus... the Qur'anic etiology of female genital mutilation and the author's response: revulsion.

30 SEXY SOPHIE TUCKER'S CONFUSING LEGACY

by Joyce Antler

Critics called the vaudevillian "big, gawky, entirely lacking in 'allure,'" but Tucker's robust sexuality—her "red-hot mama" persona—liberated audiences' imaginations.

The draft Communal Land Bill contradicts resolutions of two previously held national land conferences in, among others, that it doesn't contain any special provisions for women's access and control over farming land.

Die Wetsontwerp op Kommunale Grond is in konflik met die uitkoms van twee vorige nasionale landkonferensies omdat dit, onder andere, geen spesiale voorsienings maak vir vroue se toegang en beheer oor landbougrond nie.
