CORRECTION:

The review by Brad Houston of 23 Things for Archivists that appeared in Vol. 34, No. 2, 2012, indicated Mr. Houston was employed by the University of Wisconsin–Madison. He is actually the university records officer at the University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee. We regret the error.

Articles and reviews in this issue were submitted and accepted in 2013.

EDITORIAL POLICY

Archival Issues, a semiannual journal published by the Midwest Archives Conference since 1975, is concerned with the issues and problems confronting the contemporary archivist. The Editorial Board welcomes submissions related to current archival practice and theory, archival history, and aspects of related professions of interest to archivists (such as records management and conservation management). We encourage diversity of topics and points of view. We will consider submissions of a wide range of materials, including research articles, case studies, review essays, proceedings of seminars, and opinion pieces.

Manuscripts are blind reviewed by the Editorial Board; its decisions concerning submissions are final. Decisions on manuscripts generally will be made within six weeks of submission and will include a summary of reviewers' comments. The Editorial Board uses the current edition of The Chicago Manual of Style as the standard for style, including endnote format.

Please send manuscripts (and inquiries) to Chair Barbara Floyd. Submissions are accepted as hard copy (double spaced, including endnotes; 1-inch margins; 10-point type or larger), or electronically (Microsoft Word, WordPerfect, or .rtf files) via e-mail attachment.

Publication Reviews

Archival Issues reviews books, proceedings, Web publications, and other materials of direct relevance or interest to archival practitioners. Publishers should send review copies to Publications Review Editor Elizabeth Engel. Please direct suggestions for books, proceedings, Web publications, other materials for review, and offers to review publications to the publications review editor.

Subscriptions

Subscriptions to Archival Issues are part of membership in the Midwest Archives Conference; there is no separate subscription-only rate. Membership, which also includes four issues of the MAC Newsletter and reduced registration fees for MAC's two yearly meetings, is $45 per year for individuals and $90 per year for institutions. See <http://www.midwestarchives.org/page/membershiptypes> for more information about memberships. Members outside of North America may elect to have the journal and newsletter mailed first class rather than bulk mail, at additional cost.

Single issues of the journal are available at $15, plus $1 shipping and handling.

Please direct inquiries regarding membership and purchase of journal copies to Greg Brooks, Administrative Services Liaison, Midwest Archives Conference, 4440 PGA Boulevard, Suite 600, Palm Beach Gardens, FL 33410; e-mail: membership@midwestarchives.org.

Advertising

Archival Issues is pleased to consider exchange ads with other archival publications and with publications of other organizations that may be of interest to our readers.

MAC offers advertisers several easy and effective ways to market products, services, and announcements. These outlets include its newsletter, journal, Annual Meeting programs, and website. For all advertising rates, please contact MAC Vendor Coordinator Nicole H. Garrett, Stockwell-Mudd Libraries, Albion College; phone: 517-629-0487; e-mail: ngarrett@albion.edu.

All invoices for advertising are handled by the vendor coordinator. Payment is due within 30 days of receipt of invoice.

For information concerning exhibits and sponsorships during the Annual Meeting, please contact the MAC Vendor Coordinator.

Awards

A panel of three archivists independent of the journal's Editorial Board selects the Margaret Cross Norton and New Author awards for articles appearing in a two-year (four-issue) cycle. The Norton Award was established in 1985 to honor Margaret Cross Norton, a legendary pioneer in the American archival profession and first state archivist of Illinois. The award recognizes the author of what is judged to be the best article in the previous two years of Archival Issues and consists of a certificate and $250. The New Author Award was instituted in 1993 to recognize superior writing by previously unpublished archivists and may be awarded to practicing archivists who have not had article-length writings published in professional journals, or to students in an archival education program. Up to two awards may be presented in a single cycle.

Margaret Cross Norton Award

The 2011–2012 winners of the Margaret Cross Norton Award, given to the author(s) with the best article published by any author in volumes 33 and 34, are Rachel Howard, Heather Fox, and Caroline Daniels for their article “The Born Digital Deluge: Documenting Twenty-first Century Events.” In making its award, the committee noted that the article presented “an excellent overview with plenty of specifics to really assist others archivists.”

New Author Award

The 2011–2012 winner of the New Author Award, given to the best article by a previously unpublished archivist published in volumes 33 and 34, is Suzanna Conrad for her article “Analog, the Sequel: An Analysis of Current Film Archiving Practice and Hesitance to Embrace Digital Preservation.” In making its award, the committee noted that the article presented “an excellent environmental scan of the current state of digital moving image preservation. The topic is important, especially when archivists begin to evaluate their own film collections.”
