FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

---

Volume 15, Number 2

Summer 1995

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in The Index/Directory of Women's Media published annually by the Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press (3306 Ross Place, NW, Washington, DC 20008); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

12. "The Berkeley Women's Law Journal is guided by an editorial policy that distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist periodicals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore, discussions of women's issues that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions in inequality are continually changing, our mandate is also continually changing."

The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field -- in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

Focus: Violence Against Women

Beating Violence Against Women .....	9
The problem of violence against women has no borders and comes in different forms, from mail-order brides to battered wives, from rape to prostitution. The problem is broad and difficult to reckon with, and more so the search for solutions.
No Safe Place .....	12
The family—site of some of the worst forms of abuse today—remains key to preventing domestic violence.
Remember the Children .....	16
How does one compute the total effect of abusive fathers and petrified mothers as the children grow up?
No Excuse .....	20
An interview with Leni Marin, senior program specialist of the US-based Family Violence Prevention Fund
Prostitution as Choice .....	24
Others say some women do choose to be in prostitution, and such consent makes them "less a victim." Valid argument?
Migrant Worker Held Hostage .....	27
Alone in a foreign land, unfamiliar with either the language or the territory, migrant workers usually find themselves trapped into prostitution by their employers. In such instances, solidarity groups play a crucial role.
Unaccounted Costs .....	53
The story of a Filipina domestic helper in Singapore who was executed for killing her friend and her friend's ward highlights the utter lack of protection of the basic rights of migrant women workers everywhere.
One More Filipina in Prison .....	54
Violence at Japan's Immigration Detention Centers .....	58
Center for Women in Crisis in Pakistan .....	60
Expert on Sexual Torture Takes on State Violence .....	61
An interview with Dr. Yahika Yuksel, a socialist-feminist and human rights activist based in Turkey
The Solution to Rape .....	64
The Fiji Women's Crisis Center .....	65
A profile of a group that provides counselling and legal/medical support to women and children survivors of violence
Support Work for Prostituted Women .....	67
A profound change akin to a "burning inside" takes place in NGO workers dealing with prostituted women, after they see for themselves the range of men who treat women as commodities.
Love Shouldn't Hurt .....	70
A SPEAK interview with Africa's MMatshilo Motsei, an organizer of a support group for battered women and herself a survivor of violent abuse

Special Feature: Men Carving Out Solutions

In Progress .....	72
Some men in Korea have formed such groups as The Group of Wish-to-be-Good Fathers in the hope of providing role models to their own children.
Men for Gender Awareness .....	73
A Thai group composed of government officials, teachers, monks, lawyers, artists and NGO workers aims to achieve a better understanding of themselves, of other men, and of relationships between men and women.
Men Changing Men .....	74
A Ms. article from the two leaders of the California-based Oakland Men's Project which is dedicated to eradicating male violence, racism and homophobia

8 JEWISH WOMEN & FOOD (EAT, EAT, DIET, DIET)

by Susan Josephs

illustrated by body-size activist Beverly Naidus.

A recovered "hunger artist" binges and diets her way through the Jewish eating opportunities of her Orthodox youth—the pleasure/pain of Chanukah latkes, food-laden Purim parties, Shavuot cheesecakes and more. Plus... 3 psychologists examine food foibles particular to Jewish women.

16 POETRY: OUR IMMIGRANT PAST

Three Poems by Susan Sklan and Robin Amelia Morris

19 IDENTITY AND ANXIETY: FEMINISM & JEWISH CONTINUITY

by Susan Weidman Schneider

"Continuity"—how to ensure Jewish survival—is the fin-de-millennium hot potato of the organized Jewish community. But how does feminism play in the frenetic drama being enacted in self-important Jewish commissions, task forces and conferences around the country? The real ex-

LILITH is named for the legendary predecessor of Eve who insisted on equality with Adam. After the Holy One created the first human being, Adam, the Holy One created a woman, also from the earth, and called her Lilith. Lilith said: "We are equal because we both come from the earth..." (From The Alphabet of Ben Sira, 23a-b) citement in Jewish life comes from women: our new scholarship, new books, new rituals, new pedagogy. Here's what's really "continuity"—the best news is feminist.

22 NOT-ARABS AND NOT-JEWS: DRUZE WOMEN IN ISRAEL

by Naomi Grossman

When we hear about the Druze people's full participation in Israeli society, that means only the men. A Druze woman can aspire to an engineering degree, but not a driver's license. This paradox makes Israel's Jewish population look progressive on women's roles.

26 SHABBAT AT THE NURSING HOME

by Susan Schnur

A nursing home is nobody's idea of a nappy ending. But an unusual mother-daughter volunteer team has visited every Friday for many years—reviving Yiddish memories for the Jewish residents at a Methodist facility. Plus...

- Atrist at Age 14—meet Raene Dalton, four-year veteran of fasting.
- Pretend they're in armchairs.

40 THE WAYS WE ARE: TEACHING YESHIVA GIRLS

Correction

On the news piece The Clothesline Project (May 1995, page 4), we misquoted a statistic on the prevalence of violence in women and children's lives. The statement, "...If every woman and child that was a survivor of violence were to make a shirt, it is estimated that the clothesline would stretch from Washington, DC to Denver, CO!!" is true only for the United States and for the year 1992. Unfortunately, otherwise, the clothesline might stretch around the perimeter of the earth several times.
