feminist periodicals

a current listing of contents

Volume 3, Number 1, 1983

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the Women's Studies Librarian-at-Large on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW system.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offering. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with the exception of Ms., do we include newstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in Guide to Women's Publishing by Polly Joan and Andrea Chesman (Paradise, CA: Dustbooks, 1978); The Annotated Guide to Women's Periodicals in the U.S. edited bi-annually by Terry Mehlman (5173 Turner Rd., Richmond, IN 47374); The Index/Directory of Women's Media published annually by the Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press (3306 Ross Place, NW, Washington, DC 20008); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher Noona, and Neil E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvement of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up-to-date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information.

Feminist Periodicals is published by Susan E. Searing, Women's Studies Librarian-at-Large for the University of Wisconsin System, 112A Memorial Library, 728 State Street, Madison, WI 53706. Phone: (608) 263-5754. Compilers: Catherine R. Loeb, A. Porter O'Neill. Graphics: Catharina Schimert. MAILING DATES

We publish six bimonthly issues a year. We mail them on or before the first of February, April, June, August, October, and December. Expect your next issue approximately two months from when you received this one. Time-valued material must reach us at least two months before these mailing dates.

ADDRESS CHANGES

We mail your BROOMSTICK by nonprofit organization bulk mail, because it is far and away the least expensive way. But THE POST OFFICE DOES NOT TELL US IF YOU MOVE. We do not get a notice and the copies are neither forwarded nor returned. So be sure to let us know your change of address.

RENEWALS

We no longer send postcards to acknowledge renewals. PLEASE CHECK YOUR MAILING LABEL. It shows the month when your year's subscription begins -- 8203 is March, 1982. When "8203" sends her renewal, we change her label to "8303". If she does not renew in March, she will miss issues printed after July, 1983.

PERFUMES

We will continue to talk about allergies and other disabilities in BROOMSTICK. As a practical example, your editors are faced with a rather bizarre situation; we receive submissions we cannot read...because the paper is scented!! We're both very allergic to perfumes, so please check whether your paper is scented or if you have had perfume on your fingers when you handled it. Mickey & Polly

THE PREPARED TABLE

6
Our Golden Years—You Should Live So Long!

by Paula Gantz

The options for a decent old age shrink with every added year of a woman's age. And every year intensifies the dilemma for the daughters of elderly women, who are still seen by the community as the prime care-givers.

10
LILITH interviews Evelyn Torton Beck

by Aviva Cantor

The editor of Nice Jewish Girls: A Lesbian Anthology talks about the Jewish lesbian movement, anti-Semitism, conflicts with the Jewish community. An added bonus: excerpts from her introduction to the book.

15
Surviving Siberia: Ida Nudel Beats the Odds

by Glenn Richter and Reena Sigman Friedman

The saga of Nudel's four years in icy exile. The regime's attitude toward the "Guardian Angel of the Refuseniks" has not thawed sufficiently to grant her a visa out of the Soviet Union.

18
Battling Sexism in Jewish Schools

by Susan Weidman Schneider

How to create gender justice in Jewish education—in classrooms, texts and play activities. Notes from the front lines of the struggle, plus resources to help you change the schools.

24
Journey

A Short Story by Shelley Anne Richtmyer

Her young son's trip to Israel leads a divorced mother to examine her failed marriage to a non-Jew.

depo-provera: a contraceptive

At the depo-provera hearings of the Food and Drug Administration in Jan., a special Board of Inquiry heard testimony about the safety of this contraceptive. Upjohn & family planners disagreed with feminists & consumers. Page 5

Most women don't like to use depo-provera because their periods are disrupted. Younger women shouldn't take it because they may risk cervical cancer; for older women it may be a good choice. Page 7
