EDITORIAL POLICY

Archival Issues, a semiannual journal published by the Midwest Archives Conference, is concerned with the issues and problems confronting the contemporary archivist. Submissions relating to archival theory and current practice are solicited. Diversity among topics and points of view is encouraged. Ideas and opinions expressed by the contributors are not necessarily those of the Midwest Archives Conference or its Editorial Board.

Material in a wide range of formats—including articles, review essays, proceedings of seminars, and case studies of specific archival projects or functions—will be considered for publication. Guidelines for authors of articles and case studies are available upon request from the Editorial Board chair. Manuscripts should be sent to the board chair, Dennis Meissner, Minnesota Historical Society, 345 Kellogg Blvd. W., St. Paul, MN 55102. The Editorial Board uses the current edition of Chicago Manual of Style as the standard for style, including footnote format. Decisions on manuscripts will be rendered within ten weeks of submission. Offers to review books or suggestions of books to review should be sent to the book review editor, Nancy Bartlett, Bentley Historical Library, 1150 Beal Ave., University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-2113.

MAC members receive Archival Issues and the MAC Newsletter upon payment of annual dues of $20; institutional memberships are $40. Single issues of the journal are available at $3.50, plus fifty cents for postage and handling. Indexes to Vols. 1–8 (1976–83) and Vols. 9–21 (1984–96) are each available at the single-issue price. Inquiries regarding membership or purchase of journal copies should be directed to Barbara L. Floyd, MAC Secretary, William S. Carlson Library, University of Toledo, 2801 W. Bancroft Street, Toledo, Ohio 43606: (419) 530-2170.

Articles appearing in this journal are abstracted and indexed in America: History and Life and Library Literature.
