Feminist Periodicals

A current listing of contents

Volume 24, Number 4 & Volume 25, Number 1 (Winter & Spring 2005)

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
10. Selected fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal in FP is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on women's studies or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media, published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky and compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

University of Wisconsin System users: To locate these periodicals within the UW System, do a UW System/Universal Borrowing search from your campus catalog (labeled variously "Other Libraries," "More Libraries," "Other Catalogs," "Other UW Catalogs," etc.) If information on actual holdings (volumes and issues) is not in the records retrieved, contact the Reference Department for each library of interest:

11. "The Berkeley Women's Law Journal is guided by an editorial policy that distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist periodicals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore, discussions of women's issues that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions in inequality are continually changing, our mandate is also continually changing."

11. "The Columbia Journal of Gender and Law was founded to publish legal and interdisciplinary writings on feminism and gender issues and to expand feminist jurisprudence. Both national and international in focus, the Journal is intended to serve as a forum for topics inadequately addressed in most law journals and reviews, including issues concerning women, children, family, sexuality, reproductive rights, and violence. The articles in JGL approach legal issues from a variety of disciplines. We aim to promote an expansive view of feminism embracing women and men of all colors, classes, sexual orientations, and cultures."

11. "Feminist Studies was founded to encourage analytic responses to feminist issues and to open new areas of research, criticism and speculation. The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project.

Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

11. "Femspec", a peer-reviewed journal, is interested in developing a community of like-minded people engaged in speculating, theorizing, creating and questioning gender across the boundaries, including issues of sexual orientation. We emphasize interdisciplinary approaches, and encourage work on teaching as well as literary and cultural criticism and creative material. We hope an approach to pedagogy will bring in work from a wider area of disciplines. We are interested in a variety of feminisms and aim to be inclusive of ethnic and cultural diversity in an internationalist perspective. We are also committed to publishing feminist experimental prose and poetic works, and to experimenting across media. Our impetus came from the collectively-perceived lack of attention to non-linear writing, sf, fantasy, magical realism and supernatural works in feminist journals and audiences; the lack of consistently evolving developed levels of feminism in sf criticism; and the inadequacy of magical realism publishing outlets in the US."

11. "The aim of Gender, Place & Culture is to provide the focal point for recent work concerned with gender issues in geography and related disciplines. Key concerns in this area include the following: geographical variations in gender divisions and structures of patriarchy; the cultural construction and the cultural politics of gender; the intersections between gender, 'race', ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, class, age and other social divisions. The journal will provide a forum for debate in human geography and related disciplines on these themes. By drawing together these contributions, the journal will highlight the relevance of geographical research to feminism and women's studies."

Appropriately social sciences research is reflecting this increasing concern with gender, especially in the field of work and organization where this journal is focused. Gender, Work and Organization is the first journal to bring together a wide range of interdisciplinary and multi-disciplinary research in this field into a new international forum for debate and analysis. The journal is dedicated to advancing theory, research and applications concerning gender relations at work, the organization of gender, and the gendering of organizations. Contributions are invited from all disciplinary perspectives, including anthropology, history, labour economics, law, philosophy, politics, psychology and sociology."

perspective... allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit.... To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field -- in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

11. "Studies in Gender and Sexuality is a response to the excitement attendant to recent research and writing by scholars and clinicians. It will provide a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the Editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS will focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revised and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal will also publish related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate."

11. "The aim of this international journal is to open up a forum for dialogue, discussion and debate about the work of women writing in the Elizabethan to Victorian period. The editors welcome theoretical and historical approaches, multidisciplinary perspectives and contributions which are concerned with gender, race, and class. From time to time the journal publishes special issues devoted to particular themes."

16 WORD WARRIORS
SPARK REVOLUSHUN

d'bi young and nah-ee-lah are part of a new generation of dub poets who are using words as tools as they confront cultures of all kinds to peel back multiple layers of oppression. by Sheila Nopper

19 STAND YOUR GROUND

To this day, most Western women remain unaware that standing is a possibility, never mind a process that offers greater accuracy and control. It's time to liberate our bathroom habits once and for all. Find out how to do it standing up. by Kim Bannerman Pigott

23 CRUDE
DUDES

In her newest book, It's the Crude, Dude, Linda McQuaig argues that the invasion of Iraq was motivated by the desire of the American government to control Iraq's vast oil wealth. In fact, McQuaig extends this claim to all US military actions in the Middle East since the turn of the 20th century. by Shannon Devine

26 EMBER SWIFT
IGNITES CHANGE

Ember Swift and her band members speak their minds from stages across Canada, the US and Australia. In this interview, Swift talks about putting the politics of her songs into practice on and off the stage. by Nicole Cohen

Front Cover

"The Eternal Mother and Child," photograph by Joe Paczuski.

"Mother and Child" is the creation of Florence Wyle (1881-1968), whose work is also featured at the Art Gallery of Ontario and the National Gallery in Ottawa. The sculpture is located in front of the Mothercraft building, located at 32 Heath Street West, near the Yonge/St. Clair intersection in Toronto. Mothercraft provides service coordination for families of children birth to six years with developmental delays, family assessment and support, and early intervention for mothers and children affected by substance abuse.

Sasha was photographed by Connie M. Ross three weeks prior to delivering her son, William.

Connie M. Ross, a fine art photographer who resides near St. Paul, Minnesota, exclusively photographs expectant mothers in her business, which began several years ago.

Connie plans to combine her love of photographing expectant mothers with her PhD research, which includes cultural belief systems of pregnancy rituals. She has traveled throughout the world researching cultures in more than 30 countries. In early 2006, Connie plans to travel through South America photographing pregnant moms during her 10-week trip across the continent. If you or someone you know may wish to participate in a project such as this, please contact Connie at rosso@uwstout.edu or 715-220-2402. 6 THE GEODE Nirvan Hope

The rediscovery of a precious stone reminds us that the greatest treasure lies within.

9 PROJECT GODDESS Goddess Dina

For nine months, we had met every month to embrace and encourage the Goddess within ourselves and our sisters. Now the day had come to share our empowerment with the world.

13 THE PLAY'S THE THING Lori Brady

The sense of magic as the play opens is similar to the sense of magic I feel when I enter a ritual circle. In both we are brought out of time, into a place and world not our own, not our workaday world.

16 RIDING THE RED TIDE Lupa Virida

Within the days of our body's natural cleansing and renewal lies a wealth of magical potential. The pursuit of menstrual magic results in the healing of our minds, bodies, and souls — a healing that can touch everything around us.

20 THE TREASURE BOX Patricia Martel

The items in my treasure box are precious to me, but it is the Goddess who resides in my heart that is the greatest treasure of all.

23 LABYRINTH: WALKING THE SPIRAL PATH Linda Missouri

A journey into the center of the labyrinth became a metaphor for the spiritual path, a way to surrender to one's inner wisdom.

27 GIFTS OF THE GARDEN Tammie Burned

Some Witches turn to their Tarot cards when they need guidance. Some find answers in the silent flickering flame of a blessed candle. But through the years I've learned that no discipline helps me to really hear what Goddess is telling me more than working outdoors.

29 DISCOVERING OUR INNER TREASURE Jennifer Hudson

After years of secrecy, it is not easy to proclaim this expansive universe that is my female body, my vagina, my clitoris, my G-spot.

4 Living the Dream Anne Newkirk Niven

32 One of Ten Thousand: Into the Dark with Inanna Diana Paxson
