Feminist Periodicals

A current listing of contents

Volume 26, Numbers 2 & 3 (Summer & Fall 2006)

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. Subscription prices (print only; for online prices, consult publisher).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
10. Selected fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal in FP is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on women's studies or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media, published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky and compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

University of Wisconsin System users: To locate these periodicals within the UW System, do a UW System/Universal Borrowing search from your campus catalog (labeled variously "Other Libraries," "More Libraries," "Other Catalogs," "Other UW Catalogs," etc.) If information on actual holdings (volumes and issues) is not in the records retrieved, contact the Reference Department for each library of interest:

11. "Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice, a continuation of the Berkeley Women's Law Journal, is guided by an editorial policy which distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist journals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore discussions that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions of inequality are continually changing, our mandate is continually evolving."

The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

"Femspec, a peer-reviewed journal, is interested in developing a community of like-minded people engaged in speculating, theorizing, creating and questioning gender across the boundaries, including issues of sexual orientation. We emphasize interdisciplinary approaches, and encourage work on teaching as well as literary and cultural criticism and creative material. We hope an approach to pedagogy will bring in work from a wider area of disciplines. We are interested in a variety of feminisms and aim to be inclusive of ethnic and cultural diversity in an internationalist perspective. We are also committed to publishing feminist experimental prose and poetic works, and to experimenting across media. Our impetus came from the collectively-perceived lack of attention to non-linear writing, sf, fantasy, magical realism and supernatural works in feminist journals and audiences; the lack of consistently evolving developed levels of feminism in sf criticism; and the inadequacy of magical realism publishing outlets in the U.S."

These include Muslim and non-Muslim communities within the greater Middle East, and Muslim and Middle-Eastern communities elsewhere in the world. Articles dealing with men, masculinity, children and the family, or other issues of gender are also considered. The journal strives to include significant studies of theory and methodology as well as topical matter. Approximately one-third of the submissions focus on the pre-modern era, with the majority of articles focusing on the contemporary age. The journal features several full-length articles and current book reviews. The majority of Hawwa's articles are in English. However, articles submitted in French are also considered.

The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is "to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children.... [Its] women-centered perspective...allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit.... To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field – in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

11. "Studies in Gender and Sexuality is a response to the excitement attendant to recent research and writing by scholars and clinicians. It provides a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the Editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revised and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal also publishes related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate."

EDITOR'S NOTE

Diana Strassmann

The paper by Heike Trappe and Annette Sørensen, entitled "Economic Relations between Women and The Partners: An East and West German Comparison after Reunification," marks the first in a series of articles on Gender and Change in Central and Eastern Europe, guest edited by Marianne A. Ferber, Lisa Giddings, and Edith Kuiper. This and subsequent articles that will be published over the next few years will form a part of a larger discussion of the ways that the transition processes of these countries have altered the economic position of women and families.

FEMINIST VIEWS

16 WHERE THE WOMEN ARE
Hearts sank in 2003 when Michele Landsberg retired from her post as columnist for the Toronto Star. A fearless advocate for women's rights, Landsberg wrote for 25 years on issues ranging from sexual harassment to sharia law. Fortunately, retirement isn't on the horizon for one of the country's most notable feminists. by Nicole Cohen

20 THE PLIGHT OF AFGHAN WOMEN FOR SECURITY AND DEMOCRACY

News that Ottawa increased Canada's military presence in Afghanistan to join a U.S.-led campaign against militants in the Kandahar region prompted a national debate over Canada's role in the war-torn country. For Afghanistan women, Canada's role in establishing security and democracy means more than a military presence. by Lauryn Oates

24 HOOKED ON ART: NANCY EDELL PULLS THE RUG OUT FROM TRADITIONAL FORMS

Nancy Edell's work can be a bit of a shocker. Astroturf altars where art nuns and larvae commingle. Hooked rugs showing elaborate architectural interiors from the Renaissance, populated by nuns. Paper cut-out figures of the Royal Family set on ominous grounds. by Amy Karlinsky

27 CONTRARY MARY: QUEEN OF COMEDY STANDS UP FOR THE DISENFRANCHISED

Mary Walsh is perhaps best known and best loved for deflating the pomposity of Canada's politicians and elites as Princess Warrior on CBC's This Hour has 22 Minutes. After recently directing her first film, Mary Walsh talked to Herizons about conquering fear. by Monica Kidd

16 REACH FOR THE STARS Kinnie Starr's new CD, Anything, easily blends hip hop, rock and pop to create a sound that is at once familiar and unique. Her debut on the critically acclaimed Canadian label MapleMusic stands to bring her music and her politics to a larger audience. by Cindy Filpenko

20 TOO CLOSE FOR COMFORT In her provocative book, Too Close for Comfort: Canada's Future within Fortress North America, Council of Canadians chairperson Maude Barlow documents how Canada is slowly being brought into lockstep with U.S. foreign, defence and trade policies through a series of behind-closed-door international agreements. by Penni Mitchell

24 CROSS PURPOSES Through the ages, women have cross-dressed for a variety of reasons. This penchant for men's clothing has been interpreted in many ways: as disguise, a challenge to traditional gender roles, sexual liberation and/or a literal and symbolic call to arms. by Krista Scott-Dixon

Sophia, our advertising director's 13-month-old daughter, was photographed by Midwifery Today designer, Minboon Kim.

To get this shot, we involved the whole office. As Sophia swung highlighters, her mother kept her from falling off the chair, Michelle, our shipping person, held the light reflector and Donna, our marketing person, made faces to get her attention.

Readers may recognize Sophia from the cover of our Winter 2005 issue.

GENDER, GENES AND REPRODUCTION

Cultural perceptions of nature, culture and reproduction are implicitly also stories of gender as it relates to biological bodies. How has this new knowledge of biological functions influenced contemporary perceptions of gender, nature and culture? PAGE 4

GENDER EQUALITY AND FERTILITY

In the Nordic countries, women enjoy a high degree of participation in working life while at the same time giving birth to a relatively large number of children. This is often interpreted as indicating that the Nordic family policy model has high sustainability with respect to equal opportunities policy. More detailed analyses of the development of fertility patterns provide only conditional support for this assumption. PAGE 16

NORDIC WELFARE STATES – A VIEW FROM THE OUTSIDE

To what extent have the Nordic welfare states been successful in promoting a women-friendly, gender-inclusive model of citizenship? Ruth Lister, professor of Social Policy at Loughborough University in England, looks at the challenges for the Nordic model. PAGE 28

Biology in feminist theory
Biological research and gender studies have produced new understandings of sex and gender that in many ways have led to increased tensions between these scientific fields. PAGE 8

Gendering Animals
A female spotted hyena has a penis and a male pipefish carries the young in his belly. How to define biological sex and gender in the world of animals? PAGE 12

Russian Women in Grey Zones
While the Nordic states are celebrated for the inclusiveness both in social and gender terms, many immigrant women find their agency being restricted. PAGE 20

Towards a Family Equality Policy?
How have welfare policies in the Nordic countries been influenced by developments in the European Union? A team of researchers has analysed trends and changes in employment and family issues in eight northern European countries. PAGE 24

Generation XXX
Pornography is a familiar phenomenon in the daily life of Nordic adolescents. The vast majority have seen porn and many use it actively. These are the main findings in a study carried out among youth in Denmark, Norway and Finland. The study is part of the Nordic research project Youth, Gender and Pornography. PAGE 34

Different porn careers?
Some clear differences between boys and girls emerge regarding behaviour patterns with respect to pornography. This also goes for attitudes towards the phenomenon. This study is based on conversations with Swedish young people about their experience and perception of porn. PAGE 37

Summer into Fall 2006

FEATURES

6 ALMOST YELLOW

C. Delia Scarpitti

My life unfurls in a balanced rhythm — now that I know enough to realize that I know nothing at all.

10 DANCING WITH DEATH: BAILE CON LA MUERTE

Clara Oropeza

I know that my healing journey is in harmony when I trust that moving through this death experience is now my soul's work.

13 IN TUNE: THE HEALING POWER OF INTUITION

Judith Orloff, M.D.

Of one thing I'm certain: your intuitive voice is the best friend you'll ever have. Stay true to it.

15 MY ELEMENTAL VACATION

Wendy Thurston

The easiest way to make the Goddess laugh? Make a plan. She finds detailed plans especially amusing.

18 THE DAMSEL & THE DRAGONFLY

Bee Smith

How gardening restored my sense of balance — and my soul.
